Two Nabbed In Battering Safe Door

One Suspect Faces Charge Of Stealing An Automobile

Two youths, allegedly spotted as they attempted to break open a large safe at a Kentfield restaurant, were captured by a Larkspur policeman early today after he fired four shots at one fleeing the scene.

A second safe burglary—the theft of an estimated $900 in cash and checks—occurred at Moulton Mercantile Co. on Montezuma Avenue in Forest Knolls, but officers said there was no evidence connecting the two cases.

Booked in Marin County jail for investigation of burglary were Ira Lewis Edwards, 19, of 135 Drake Avenue, Marin City, and Michael Raymond Tauer, 18, of 38 Strawberry Circle, Strawberry Manor. Edwards also was booked for investigation of car theft. No bail for either had been set at noon today.

Larkspur Police Officer Alasdair Wilson MacDonald, 25, said he was driving to work about 12:20 a.m. when he noticed a rear door ajar at Eat and Run, 830 College Avenue, Kentfield.

He halted his vehicle and saw two youths inside attempting to batter open a safe. MacDonald, his gun drawn, approached and ordered the pair to raise their hands.

They complied, he said, and he directed htme to back slowly out of the building. But as one youth came out, the second slammed a door.

MacDonald stepped back far enough to get a view of a west side window, ordering the youth in custody to lie on the ground.

Moments later, he said, the second youth leaped out of the window.

MacDonald fired twice, missing him. The youth fled to hide behind a nearby dirt pile.

MacDonald fired two more shots, both missing.

The youth again ran, got into a white and maroon colored car bearing Texas license plates and left. MacDonald, with the first youth still in custody, then radioes for help.

Joined by a second Larkspur officer, Roland Kirstein, he began a search for the second youth. Aiding the search were units from the sheriff's office, Corte Madera, San Anselmo, and Fairfax police, and California Highway Patrol.

Shortly afterward, the two Larkspur officers spotted a youth in a different vehicle, a red 1964 model Volkswagen sta-

Shastri Claims China Attacking

U.N. Sets Kashmir Deadline

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Indian Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri charged today that Communist Chinese troops have started attacks on Indian forces along their frontier in the high mountains of the Himalayas.

Shastri disclosed the attacks in an address to the Indian parliament only hours after the United Nations Security Council warned Communist China by implication to stay out of the strife on the subcontinent involving India and Pakistan. The council demanded a cease-fire in the India Pakistan war by 3 a.m. EDT Wednesday.

START FIRING

"Chinese troops have started firing on our border posts both in Ladakh and Sikkim," Shastri said.

India has arned that any Chinese attacks will be met "with grim determination" by the Indian army.

Communist China today charged that five Indian soldiers crossed the mountainous border yesterday and opened fire on the Communist checkpoint for civilians. China said the "Indian intruders" were repulsed when Chinese troops manning the checkpost returned the fire.

SITUATION TENSE

Indian sources denied there was any skirmish yesterday, but the Indian defense ministry said the situation was tense because of heavy Communist Chinese troop concentrations.

A spokesman for the Indian defense ministry said some Chinese Communist troops were "digging in" along the frontier, particularly in the Sikkim area.

There were some signs of a slowdown in the ground war between India and Pakistan, but

Another Blaze Strikes Valley

A roaring fire raged for nine and one-hlf hours in Chileno Valley Saturday, devouring 150 acres of timber, grass and brush.

The blaze, first reported at 11:39 a.m. came only hours after firemen finished mopping up after a gigantic Chileno Valley blaze which blackened 8,000 acres of grass and brush on the Marin - Sonoma County border Friday.

Marin County Fire Chief Louis Bloom reported Saturday's blaze was caused by a backfire from an unidentified hunter's jeep. The fire was on the ranch of Dr. Joseph H. Kleiser of 10 Hotaling Court, Ross. The ranch is located on Chileno Valley Road.

The blaze was fought by 10 trucks, 64 men, and nine bulldozers, reported Bloom. Aid to the county fire department was given by the Petaluma Civil Defense unit, Petaluma Fire Department, Two Rock Army Station Fire Department, Hamilton Air Force Base Fire Department, and many ranch owners and workers. Forty volunteers assisted in fighting the blaze, which was reported under control at 9 p.m. Saturday.

The blaze was in a very steep canyon, according to Bloom. Firemen were unable to use mechanical equipment to fight the heart of the fire, he said. Most of the trucks pumped water on the blaze from the canyon ridges while men worked below by hand.

No structures or livestock were damaged by the blaze, Bloom said. The unidentified hunter whose jeep started the fire was reported to have received facial burns in attempting to extinguish it.

Chief Bloom reminded the public today that all burning, even in incinerators, is illegal in the county.

"Burning was outlawed as of last Thursday by the State Division of Forestry, and that ban remains effective until further notice," he said. "Even though weather conditions seem to be easing off a little, our county is still tinder dry and the fire danger is extremely critical. I anxiously request the support of all citizens in our attempts to prevent further fires."

Acreage burned thus far in the county since the "fire season" began in June is higher than it has been since 1945, said

Only 2 Blazes Continue Over Charred State

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Only two major forest and brush fires were still burning today in Northern California, blackened since last Thursday by 275 separate fires in 21 counties.

State forestry officials termed the stubborn and disastrous series of fires the worst in Northern California history.

As fire fighters continued to surround the two remaining dangerous fires, the fifth day of blazes found more than 210,000 acres — an area covering more than 315 square miles — of timber and brush burned.

Worst of the two remaining fires was a timber blaze in Sonoma County, in the Austin Creek area, about 45 miles north of San Francisco.

At daybreak, that fire had burned 8,000 acres of grassland and timber and destroyed an undetermined number of summer cabins near the mountain settlement of Cazadero.

"We hope to have this fire contained by nightfall," the forestry spokesman said.

Other fire fighters were able to contain the 16,000-acre Chiles Valley fire in Napa County, some 40 miles northeast of San Francisco, but the blaze was still burning.

Dozens of smaller fires were snuffed out over the weekend, but some still smoldered threateningly. Strong winds, which had caused the fires to jump about like popcorn, had died down.

The fires have cost one life, an El Dorado County volunteeer fireman killed in his overturned truck, destroyed more than 120 houses, some 400 outbuildings and 1,500 head of cattle, sheep and hogs. Damage has been rated at about $4.5 million.

Kuchel Stays Out Of Race, Hits 'Fanatics'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, R-Calif., announced today he will not be a candidate for governor of California in next year's election.

Kuchel announced his decision in a 700-word statement attacking "a fanatical, neo-fascist, political cult" within the Republican Party in California and urging "all reasonable Republicans" to unite behind "one reasonable candidate, untainted by extremism."

California's senior senator expressed a desire to preserve his seniority in the Senate, in which he has served since Jan. 2, 1953, and where he is assistant Republican floor leader. His Senate term has three years to run.

Kuchel expressed gratitude to "those many citizens, Republicans and Democrats," who, he said, had been urging him to run. Without naming any individual, Kuchel said many California Republicans are eminently qualified by education and experience to be governor of state.

The only announced Republican candidate for governor thus far is Laughlin Waters, former U.S. Attorney in Los Angeles and former member of the state legislature. Actor Ronald Reagan is widely regarded the leading potential candidate.

Democrat Gov. Edmund G. Brown reportedly has advised political associates that he expects to seek reelection.

"The tragic fact is that within our California Republican Party is a fanatical, neo-fascist, political cult, overcome by a strange mixture of corrosive hatred and sickening fear, recklessly determined to control our party or destroy it," Kuchel said.

"Their un-Republican dogma has no more place in our party than the odious teachings of communism," he added.

California May Become 'Sewer' By 1990, Report On Waste Says

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—California will be an intolerable sewer by 1990 unless drastic measures are taken to manage waste disposal, according to an Aerojet General Corp. report.

The report issued yesterday was one of four studies the aerospace industry was commissioned to make by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

The results of the six-month Aerojet study were contained in a 437-page report that warned that within 25 years, the mounting problems of waste disposal will rocket to the multibillion-dollar level and still become more serious.

The study urged that aerospace "system analysis" techniques be used to organize the total waste problem into a well-balanced program for greater efficiency.

E. R. Roberts, Aerojet vice president, said that the state's already serious smog problem will become more critical even after use of auto exhaust devices becomes widespread.

And, Roberts added, the disposal of rubbish, garbage, sewage, factory effluents, farm waste and radioactive wastes will be as serious as the air pollution problem is today.

In outlining the state's problems, the report stated:

"In 1965, there are industrial dumps and large piles of wastes from stockyards, dairies and poultry farms in urban and rural areas from Crescent City to Calexico.

"The South San Francisco Bay has become offensive to sight and smell through its use as a cesspool. South coastal kelp beds have almost disappeared because of increased sewage emission to the ocean.

"The transparency of Lake Tahoe is endangered by liquid-borne wastes...Inland areas like the Santa Ana River Basin are restricted in their industrial growth because of limited waste disposal capability...Eye irritation caused by air pollution is a common complaint in the Los Angeles area.

"...As the population doubles and automobiles more than double in California between now and 1990, air pollution will spread over every major populated area of the state.

"Radioactive wastes are expected to become a major problem as nuclear power in generation approaches 100,000 megawatts by the end of the century."

Third Try Fails To Burn Old Building

Marin City youths tried for a third time last night to set fire to abandoned building C-44, due to be demolished soon.

Chief Louis Bloom of the Marin County Fire Department said the alarm was called at 5:58 p.m.

Small fires had been set in three places around the wooden building's walls, said Bloom. One youth was seen throwing a can of gasoline onto the fire, he said. He was not captured.

No estimate of damage to the building was made, said Bloom. The building is sufficiently isolated from other structures to keep any fires from spreading, he said.

Youths tried to burn the same building on Thursday and Friday. Teen-agers stoned the fire trucks and attempted to steal equipment during the Thursday night blaze.

Intruders Leave Home Shambles After Party

Police Patrolman Charles Newman, who was called to investigate the vandalism at 148 Golden Hinde Passage, wrote in his report:

"The reporting officer has observed many acts of vandalism in the past. This is by far the worst that can be recalled. The property at this time is nothing but a shambles."

Newman reported furniture in the house was "methodically smashed up and piled in pieces on the floor."

He said a dining room table was thrown through sliding glass doors, shower glass doors in the bathroom were smashed and broken, a bottle and dishes were thrown through the kitchen window, and water taps were torn from the kitchen sink.

Neighbors questioned yesterday morning said they had heard a large party in progress the night before but had not thought to report it to police.

The house is owned by Lawrence Selmer of San Francisco. It is being leased to Reynold Acevedo, 27, Joseph D. Courson, 22, and at least one other man share the rent with Acevedo.

Acevedo and Courson admitted they gave a party Saturday night. But it wasn't the party that caused the damage, they told police—that broke up without incident.

The smashup was after the party was over, they said. Eight men walked into the house, picked a fight and proceeded to tear up the house, they declared.

Mr. and Mrs. Selmer said today they will not file charges against Acevedo and Courson provided they "make full restitution for the damages."

Two Americans Taken By Reds

BERLIN (AP) — West Berlin police reported today that two American Negroes were taken into custody in Communist East Berlin around midnight.

A U.S. mission spokesman identified one of the men as Moses Reese Herren, about 24, of Akron, Ohio, a civilian resident of West Berlin.

"We know nothing more about him," the spokesman said, "and we know nothing at all about the other man reported missing."

Chinese Say U.S. Plane Shot Down

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China charged that a U.S. plane "intruded" into China's Hainan Island and was shot down by Chinese aircraft today.

A broadcast heard here identified the pilot of the F104 fighter as Capt. Philips E. Smith. It said he was captured "when he parachuted from his plane and tried to flee."

The broadcast claimed the plane was shot down over Hoihow, on the northern shore of the island, or just south of the mainland.

Red Deadline Passes

MOSCOW (AP) — The deadline for calling a Soviet Communist party congress, fixed by party statutes, passed today without any public announcement of such a meeting. This could indicate division among Soviet leaders.

Surprise Moon Photos Shown By Russians

Dr. B.Y. Levin displayed the eight lunar slides from 25 pictures transmitted by Russia's Zond 3 spacecraft last July 18. The slides were not scheduled on the final day's program Saturday of the conference on the Moon and planets sponsored by the California Institute of Technology and its Jet Propulsion Laboratory.

Congo Session Opens To Shouts

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — The first Congolegese parliamentary session in two years opened today in Leopoldville.

In the Senate, a debate on credentials turned into a shouting match. The shouting was ended by sending the question to committee.

Boy Toppled From Mat Drowns Near Beach

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—John Conklin, 13, Daly City, drowned yesterday in the surf off Ocean Beach after he was toppled from an air mattress raft about 150 feet from shore.

Responding to cries for help from the boy's companions, Paul Kenny, 34, swam out and tried to reach him. But the boy disappeared before he could.

Post Office Hit By Giant Series Ticket Hopefuls

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—World Series fervor sent the San Francisco Post Office team to the bench today.

One-half hour before the 8 a.m. opening the money order window at the Rincon Annex—the main office— the clerk looked up and saw 100 men in line.

A reserve was hustled into action and two windows opened. But they couldn't handle the crowd so another window was opened one-half hour later. And soon there were four windows open.

The Post Office said nearly all the money orders were in the amount of $49.

That just happens to be the exact cost of two tickets to the three World Series games that will be played in San Francisco should the Giants stay atop the National League.

This was the first day reserve seat World Series tickets ent on sale by mail only.

Viet Nam Group Replacing FSM

BERKELEY (UPI)—Students flocked to the University of California 27,000 strong today with the memories of last year's "free speech" uproar still fresh and new demonstrations promised this fall.

But unlike last year, indications are this fall's demonstrations will be aimed at U.S. involvement in the Vietnamese war rather than directly at the university administration.

Last year's student revolt—which led to the arrest of 773 persons—was sparked by the Free Speech Movement, succeeded this spring by the Free Student Union. But since last fall, the Viet Nam Day Committee has been formed and has become the spearhead of student unrest.

Turns Down The President

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Little Courtenay (Coco) McPherson had plenty to tell the sandbox crowd today. She turned down an invitation to lunch with the President of the United States.

Courtenay

It happened yesterday as the Chief Executive was leaving St. Mark's Episcopal Church. Johnson spotted 7-year-old Coco, daughter of presidential assistant Harry C. R. McPherson, and called:

"Would you like to come home and have lunch with us?

"I have to go home with my mother," said Coco.

"Well, bring her along," the President said.

"Will you wait for me?" the little girl asked.

"Yes, if you hurry," Johnson said.

Coco skipped off to consult her mother. She returned a moment later to say that mother reported she was already scheduled to go to a picnic, but "thank you very much anyway."

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Quadruplets born prematurely to a 28-year-old woman who took the fertility drug Clomiphene were "holding their own" but remained in critical condition today in the incubators in county General Hospital, attendants reported.

Pigee

The two boys and two girls were born yesterday to Mrs. Alice Mae Pigee of Los Angeles. Spokesmen said the infants were about one month premature. The babies weighed less than three pounds each.

A hospital spokesman said Mrs. Pigee, who said she is separated from her husband, had started taking Clohiphene in November of last year at a medical clinic.

Erhard's Party Wins

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Ludwig Erhard and his Christian Democratic party kept their leadership of West Germany in an election triumph.

Erhard

The voters decided yesterday that after 16 years of Christian Democratic rule they wanted more of the same. The turnout was 86.9 per cent of the eligibile voters.

The election results, giving 15,392,973 votes to Erhard's party, disappointed the challenging Social Democrats and their chancellor candidate, Mayor Willy Brandt of West Berlin. His party tallied 12,711,726 votes.

Brandt

Although Erhard's party won the biggest share of the votes, 47.6 per cent, it did not get an absolute majority and is certain to continue its coalition with the Free Democrats.

The Free Democrats cornered 9.5 per cent of the popular vote, compared with 12.8 per cent in 1961.

Erhard told a nationwide television audience: "We are determined to continue our present policy which has won the voters' approval."

Bishops Clash Over Deaconess Title

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two bishops of the Episcopal Church have clashed over the investiture ceremony of Deaconess Phyllis Edwards and whether or not she is entitled to be called "the reverend" as a minister.

At Peoria, Ill. yesterday, the Rt. Rev. Francis W. Lickfield, president of the American Church Union of the Episcopal Church, took California Bishop James A. Pike to task for recognizing a woman as minister.

During services at St. Paul's Church, Lickfield said of the 48-year-old woman, "she is not a clergyman." He continued:

"To say that she is the first woman minister in the Episcopal Church. . .is untrue in that 'minister' in common usage means clergyman. An Episcopal deaconess is not an Episcopal clergyman. She is what she has always been, a Christian woman who ministers in an ancient order for women, the order of deaconess."

Lickfield said Mrs. Ewards "has not been ordained to the sacred ministry and stands in no different position now than formerly."

Bishop Pike replied at Concord, that, on the contrary, Mrs. Edwards now is a minister and is entitled to be addressed "the reverend."

He said the designation was made possible by a resolution adopted by the House of Bishops conference this month at Glacier Park, consistent with church action at the 1964 Episcopal General Convention in St. Louis.

Pike said the St. Louis action followed "the recommendation of the Lambeth Conferences of 1920 and 1930" which the California churchman said favored the ordaining of deaconesses.

Casady Asks Truce With Brown In State Democratic Council

MILLBRAE (AP) — The president of California's big, liberal-minded Democratic volunteer organization aimed today to patch up a dispute with official party leaders and end the flurry of fighting that broke out at two weekend meetings.

Simon Casady, head of the California Democratic Council, said he will seek an immediate peace meeting with Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Brown, supported by the executive committee of the Democratic State Central Committee, asked for Casady's resignation because of his criticism of President Johnson's policies in Viet Nam.

In Fresno, the board of the 50,000 member Democratic council, debated the demand in a closed session Saturday night and finally declared Casady's own conscience should decide whether he remains as president.

"I shall do everything I can to bring about a reconciliation with the governor," Casady promised the board before it adjorned yesterday.

"I learn slowly but I learn," he said. "I assure this group that I will exert considerable effort to improve the methods I have been using."

Casady, a retired El Cajon publisher, said he wanted to meet with Brown quickly "so we can look ahead to the significant job of the 1966 election."

That was the main theme of Saturday's central committee executive group session, too.

Members elected a new state chairman, Robert Coate, 41, of Castro Valley, who predicted party unity for next year's campaign. He succeeded Roger Kent of Kentfield, who resigned to tackle Brown's forthcoming campaign.

Boy, 17, Shoots Stepfather After Dispute Over Scooter

LOS ALTOS HILLS (AP)—A 45-year-old pediatrician was fatally shot by his 17-year-old stepson last night while his wife and two daughters looked on, according to Santa Clara County sheriff's deputies.

Dr. Robert G. Morris was dead on arrival at El Camino Hospital in Mountain View. The shooting took place during the family's Sunday dinner.

The stepson, Michael Huskey was held on suspicion of murder, the sheriff's office said.

Michael's mother, Kathleen, 39, told deputies that the boy stepped into the dining room with a 30-30 hunting rifle and fired one shot into the doctor's back.

Sheriff's Lt. Ralph Howard said the shooting followed a long argument between the doctor and Michael over a motor scooter which the boy had wanted to sell.

Mrs. Morris told deputies that Michael refused to come to dinner because of the argument and that his stepfather went out to the garage to bring him into the house.

The doctor returned without Michael and Mrs. Morris said she went to the garage where she found Michael lying on the floor, claiming that the doctor had kicked him.

Mrs. Morris persuaded the boy to come back to the house. She said Michael asked if he could eat in his room but the doctor said no.

Michael then went to his room, his mother said, and returned with the rifle.

New York Papers Talks Resume

NEW YORK (AP) — Representatives of the American Newspaper Guild and the New York Times resume negotiations today after making the first reported progress in settling the five-day strike-shutdown.

Both sides agreed as a session broke up after midnight that they had moved slightly closer to agreement on a pension plan, one of four major issues in the walkout.

The negotiators planned to meet at noon for further study of a guild proposal and Times' counter proposal on the pension issue.

Traffic Fatalities Increase In 6 Months

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council says 50,700 persons were killed in traffic accidents on United States roads during the first six months of this year, an increase over last year's pace.

The council said yesterday the fatalities were a one per cent increase over the 50,000 deaths recorded during the first half of 1964.

SAIGON (UPI) — American paratroopers today pursued a Viet Cong force which bloodied elements of the U.S. Army's 101st Airborne in heavy fighting during the weekend and then faded into the mountains of the central highlands.

Official U.S. military spokesmen described American losses as "moderate." Four American helicopters were shot down and newsmen on the scene reported "scores" of U.S. casualties.

The battle began Saturday morning. The guerrillas, believed to be regulars of the Viet Cong's 95th Regiment, pinned down units of the 101st Airborne for 24 hours, preventing reinforcements from arriving and the wounded from being airlifted out.

U. S. military authorities said today the operation, dubbed "Gibraltar," was continuing. It also involved artillerymen of the newly arrived U.S. First Cavalry Division (airmobile).

UPI newsfilm cameraman Ceferino Balbaboco reported from An Ninh, about 270 miles northeast of Saigon, that the four American helicopters were shot down by Viet Cong marksmen before they could unload their troops. He said letters and documents found on guerrilla bodies indicated they had come only recently from Communist North Viet Nam.

The "Flying Horsemen" of the First Cavalry Division got their first taste of battle in Viet Nam Saturday when an artillery unit was called in to support the hard-pressed paratroopers.

In the air war, giant U.S. Air Force B52 bombers based on Guam attacked the swampy Camau peninsula of the Mekong Delta in their 27th raid of the war.

The peninsula, about 185 miles southwest of Saigon, is believed a major base of operations for the Viet Cong. Results of the bombing were not disclosed.

Possible Bridge Jump Try Foiled

A Greenbrae woman, who apparently tried to climb over the pedestrian guard railing of Golden Gate Bridge Saturday, was held for observation at San Francisco General Hospital.

Peggy Sartain, a WAC stationed at the Presidio of San Francisco, told the California Highway Patrol that Lucy H. Meyer, 36, of 94 Via La Cumbre, Greenbrae, passed her on the walkway of the bridge at 2:45 p.m. Saturday. She said Mrs. Meyer was staggering.

Mrs. Meyer tried to climb over the bridge railing, but fell back, reported Miss Sartain. She said she rushed to the woman and stayed with her until the highway patrol arrived.

Scientists Say Aquanaut Test Exceeds Hopes

LA JOLLA (AP)—The Navy's 45-day Sealab 2 underwater living experiment reached the halfway point yesterday and officials praised its progress lavishly.

"We are easily accomplishing or exceeding what we've planned to do," said Capt. George Bond, USN, chief investigator of the experiment. "I hope the remaining half of the experiment goes as well."

Capt. Lewis B. Melson, USN, project director, said the research "confirms our belief that the challenge of the deep ocean is utterly fascinating and incredible. Sealab will be the stepping stone to full comprehension of life in aquaspace."

"We are exceptionally pleased with the progress of the program," said Henry O'Neal, the civilian program manager.

"While we have not done all the individual tasks that we hoped to do," O'Neal said, "We intentionally laid on more than could be done in order to check just exactly what can be accomplished."

O'Neal said all troubles to date have been minor ones.

The second 10-man aquanaut team, except for Cdr. M. Scott Carpenter, completed its seventh of 15 days in 205-feet-deep Sealab Sunday.

Carpenter, the astro-aquanaut, is in his 23rd day on the ocean bottom today. He's scheduled to come up after 30 days.

Marin Receives Trailer Taxes

A check for $17,230 has been sent to Marin County as its share of state house trailer fees collected in California in the first half of 1965.

The fee on trailer homes is collected by the state at the time of registration and is levied in lieu of property taxes. It is ultimately turned over to the county in which the trailer was registered.

Marin County's share, according to State Controller Alan Cranston, came from more than $5,876,000 collected throughout the state, which now has nearly 300,000 house trailers.

Teen Billiard Ordinance To Go Before San Rafael City Council

An ordinance amendment which would allow 16-year-olds to play pool in San Rafael until 2 a.m. will come before the San Rafael City Council for adoption at its meeting at 8 p.m. today in the city hall.

The change in the present billiard hall ordinance, which sets the minimum age of poolhall patrons at 21 and requires halls to close by 11 p.m., was requested by James Hambrick who plans to open a "family billiard parlor" at 921 C Street.

An ordinance giving the council the option to require dedication of right-of-way for a freeway or parkway or to require that the land be withheld from subdivision will be introduced. The ordinance was prepared by City Atty. David Menary Jr. in connection with the dispute over extension of Freitas Parkway in the Terra Linda annexation.

The council will again face the question of allowing city land atop San Rafael hill to be used as a radio transmitter site. Radio station KTIM requested a use permit for the site.

The council will face another hearing on an appeal of a planning commission recommendation to deny a use permit for a lot to store automobiles on Jordan Street. The application for the storage lot was made by L. P. Aquilino. Letters in protest of the granting of such a permit will be read.

Novato School Board Faces Enrollment Growth Problems

Problems resulting from the unexpected increase in school enrollment will come up before Novato Unified School District trustees when they meet at 8 p.m. today in the Administration Building.

The board will consider renting a portable classroom for Lu Sutton School and hiring one kindergarten and two first grade teachers.

It will also consider the question of high school students from the Olive Avenue area east of Highway 101 walking to school. This is the first year that the high school students have not been supplied with bus transportation across Highway 101.

Other items to come before the board include disposition of the bonds of former San Jose district, a report on the new construction in the district, and elementary classroom needs for the 1966-67 school year.

3 Men Fail In Jailbreak In Oakland

OAKLAND (AP)—Three prisoners failed in a bullet-spattered attempt to escape from the Alameda County jail yesterday.

Authorities said Howard Bernard, 40, somehow managed to get hold of a .357 magnum pistol and used it to force deputy Ralph Sigler to release him and his cell mate, Harold Terry, 28.

The two then forced Sigler to disrobe and took his keys which they used to free James W. Powers, 22, from another section of the jail.

They forced deputy Harold Russell, 37, to take them down from the 10th floor jail in the County Courthouse to the basement.

There the escapees fired two shots at building engineer Thomas Caba, then took Caba prisoner and made him give up his car keys.

Oakland Police Lt. Harold McCormick saw Terry and Powers in Caba's car and fired a six-shot salvo at the escapees.

Neither was hit and they surrendered immediately.

Sleepy Husband Crashes Auto; Wife Injured

Mrs. Karleen Turnbull, 24, of 28 Gomez Way, Mill Valley, was reported in satisfactory condition at Marin General Hospital today after being injured in an automobile accident Saturday.

Mrs. Turnbull was riding with her husband, Gregory, 26, when he fell asleep at the wheel of their car on Shoreline Highway north of Highway 101 at 4:35 a.m. Saturday, reported the California Highway Patrol.

The car skidded 81 feet off the road and smashed into a large boulder and a utility pole. Mrs. Turnbull suffered multiple cuts and bruises and possibly a concussion, reported Marin General Hospital.

Her husband was treated at the hospital for minor cuts and bruises.

Wreck In Tunnel Hurts Motorist

A San Francisco man was reported in good condition today at St. Francis Hospital, San Francisco, after suffering head injuries when his car overturned in the Waldo Tunnel Saturday night.

Clarence E. Ferguson, 61, was driving south on Highway 101 when his auto smashed into the side of the tunnel and overturned at 10:20 p.m., reported the California Highway Patrol.

Two passengers in the car, Mrs. Zoila Ferguson, 58, and Ruth H. Wilson, 58, both of San Francisco, suffered cuts and bruises and were treated at St. Francis Hospital.

Ferguson told the highway patrol he swerved to avoid a car that cut in front of him.

Back To School Night Scheduled Sept. 29

"Back to School Night" is slated for Sept. 29 at Sir Francis Drake High School.

Parents will attend their children's classes and meet with teachers. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. with a welcoming assembly.

Dobermann Pinscher Takes Top Kennel Club Honors

A record entry of 1,093 dogs of more than 100 breeds competed in the rings at Rancho Rafael, Ignacio.

In the special competition for Marin County entries, the winner was an Ascob cocker spaniel, Champion Our Own Personality Beau, owned by Anne Keleman of 14 Montecimas Avenue, Mill Valley. The dog receiver a silver chafing dish in memory of the late John A. Goegman, first president of the kennel club.

In the variety groups, the best sporting dog was also an Ascob spaniel, Ch. Hi-boots Such Brass, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Grossman of Sacramento. Best hound was Basset, Ch. Fassetts Mr. Ed, owned by Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Fassett of Danville; best local hound was the Afghan Ghahyl Soltan Jebel, owned by Patricia Rice of 639 Sequoia Drive, Mill Valley. Winner of the working group was the show-winning Dobermann Pinscher; best local working honors went to a boxer C. Space Man of Jofra, owned by Frances E. Lowman of 16 Madera Boulevard, Corte Madera.

Wire fox terrier Ch. Zeloy Mooremaides Magic won the terrier group for owner G. Bunker of Los Angeles, best local terrier was an Australian terrier, Ch. Armac Duke of Hammersley, owner by Margaret L. Gloe, 639 Sequoia Drive, Mill Valley.

Winner of the toy group was a Pekingese, Ch. Mar-Pat Man'd Sun of Monte Verde, owned by Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Huggins of Denver, Colo. Best local toy was a Yorkshire, Ch. Blue Girl of Palm Springs, owned by Robert Sullivan and Ronald Sinclair of 675 Northern Avenue, Mill Vallay.

A relative newcomer to the show ring, the Miniature poodle female Aspen Angelique owned by Irene E. Geurds of 29 Boulevard Terrace, Novato, garnered five championship points by not only upsetting champions to go best of variety, but went on to win the non-sporting group. She was not entered in the local competition; local non-sporting group winner was the French bulldog Ch. Terrett's Terre De Hampton, owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Hampton of 268 Cascade Drive, Mill Valley.

CHILENO

Bloom. More than 2,500 acres have burned already.

A total of 14 grass fires were reported throughout the county during the weekend. Many were the result of children playing with matches. Several began when incinerators sent sparks into the sun-crisped grass.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown declared this and four other Northern California counties disaster areas as a result of blazes which began in high winds Thursday. The other counties are Napa, Sonoma, Solano, and Placer.

The State Division of Forestry said the recent burt of fires is the worst ever to hit Northern California.

Six fires remained burning after the tremendous rash of blazes began Thursday, said Sterling Damgaard, dispatcher for the Division of Forestry.

Fire fighters' biggest jobs remain in Sonoma and Napa counties where 103,000 acres have already been blackened, the division reported.

tion wagon, and arrested him at Buckeye Way and Goodhill Road in Kentfield. Officer MacDonald said he was the one who leaped out the window.

The car allegedly was stolen from the carport of Mrs. Russell J. Merret, 75 Rock Road, Kentfield. She said she was unaware of the theft until notified of its recovery.

Officer MacDonald said the white and maroon car used to escape was found abandoned about 1:20 a.m. on Spring Road near Ross.

Donald Olsen, manager of the Eat and Run, said entry to the cafe was by battering a rear door. He said the 2,000-pound safe door had been nearly opened through use of a sledge hammer and crow-bar. The safe contained about $1,000 cash, he said.

Edwards also faces two earlier charges, one of selling marijuana and the second for the Feb. 5 burglary of Sam's Anchor Cafe in Tiburon. Both cases are scheduled for trial.

The Moulton Mercantile Co. burglary occurred between 11 p.m. yesterday and 8:45 a.m. today, according to Larry Moulton, owner. He said entry was through a north window.

The intruders used a store hand-truck to cart the 650-pound safe out the front door and about 150 feet down Drake Boulevard before apparently loading it onto a truck or pickup truck, he said.

Moulton said the safe, containing $500 cash and $400 in checks, would have required three or four men to load. The hand-truck also was stolen.

Two Marin City Men Injured At Intersection

Two men were injured yesterday when their car, parked on Drake Avenue near Cole Drive in Marin City, wa shit head-on by a car driven by Ernest Hill Jr., 40, of 99 Cole Drive, Marin City, the California Highway Patrol reported.

The patrol said Hill crossed the Cole Drive intersection on Drake heading south, crossed into the north lane and struck the car in which Phaterrell Green, 26, of 143 Drake Avenue, and Gabe Jackson, 30, of 732 Drake Avenue, both Marin City, were sitting.

Jackson was treated at Marin General Hospital for cuts and bruises. Green was in fair condition today at the same hospital with multiple cuts and bruises.

Marin City Man Slashed By Knife

Sheriff's deputies today were seeking a Marin City man for questioning in the Saturday stabbing of Walter Lee, 25.

Lee, of 730 Drake Avenue, also Marin City, was in good condition at Marin General Hospital today after being admitted at 4 a.m. Saturday for treatment of the wound, a single stab of the upper chest.

Officers said Lee told them he was walking home in Marin City when a man he knew and three othres blocked his path. He said an argument started and the man drew a pocket knife and slashed him.

Corte Madera To See Bids On Furniture

The Coter Madera Town Council tonight will be asked to award contracts for purchase of furniture and equipment for the town's new Public Safety Building and remodeled Town Hall.

The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the town hall.

Town mgr. Ronald L. Usher said bids on the furniture would be opened this afternoon. He said an early estimate on the cost of the furniture and equipment was $5,200 for the new building and $2,800 for Town Hall.

The council will also be asked to set a public hearing on the appeal of planning commission denial of free-standing sign for Speedee Mart at 118 Corte Madera Avenue.

Notice Mixup Causes Kentfield Zoning Delay

Because the county failed to get notices to all persons involved, the Marin County Planning Commission today continued a hearing on zoning of the Kentfield area today until Oct. 18.

Residents of about a third of the area failed to receive notices.

Wesley Wilkes of the planning department said the omission came with the transfer to a new system for getting out notices on hearings, putting them through thhe county data processing department. In sending the order to data processing, the planning department made an error in designating the assessor's map book to be used, Wilkes said.

The zoning hearing related to the recently adopted Kentfield Master Plan. The matter will be first on the agenda for the Oct. 18 session which begins at 9 a.m. at the Civic Center.

Novato Woman In Poor Condition

Mrs. Thelma Mechin of Novato remained in poor condition in the intensive care unit of Marin General Hospital today from burns suffered in a fire at her home at 795 Story Book Court on Friday.

She was carried from the burning house by her husband, Eugene, and was admitted to Novato Hospital with third degree burns over her entire body. She was transferred to Marin General Hospital later.

both sides made fresh claims of successes in air action.

The chief minister of India's Gujerate state, his wife and three persons were killed yesterday in a mysterious plane crash 80 miles southeast of the Pakistan border, All-India Radio reported today.

The Indian official was identified as B. R. Gehta, 66. The radio said the five-seat plane crashed at a village near Bhuj in the disputed Rann of Kutch area.

Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin yesterday invited Shastri and Pakistani President Mohammad Ayub Khan to Russia for Kashmir peace talks. Informed diplomatic sources in Moscow said the move was prompted by Kremlin concern over possible Chinese intervention on the subcontinent.

Communist China postponed its ultimatum to India yesterday and gave the Indians until Wednesday to dismantle Indian military outposts along their borders. The three-day ultimatum yas to have run out yesterday afternoon.

China intensified its troop buildup within shooting distance of India's northern frontier.

The Security Council passed its cease-fire resolution early today after more than 14 hours of behind-the-scenes negotiations led by U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg, serving as council president.

The resolution demanded that India and Pakistan issue orders for a cease-fire to take effect at 3 a.m. Wednesday followed by a withdrawal of all armed personnel to positions held before Aug. 5 when the Kashmir dispute flared into the shooting stage.

The council called on all states "to refrain from any action which might aggravate the situation in the area," a reference to the Communist Chinese threat.

U.N. Secretary General Thant, armed with two previous Security Council resolutions for a cease-fire, made a trip to both India and Pakistan earlier this month. But he failed to stop the fighting.

Diplomatic sources saw a great strengthening of language in the new U.S. cease-fire demand, although it made no mention of enforcement action if India and Pakistan do not comply ith it.

The U.N. charter provides for sanctions in the event of a breach of the peace, including military action.

Novato Park Board To Study Master Plan

The Novato Parks and Recreation Commission will hold a short business meeting and then take up study of the master plan when it meets at 8 p.m. today in the Community House.

The commission will go over the fall recreation program, and hear a report from Edward W. Adams, director, on the summer recreation program.

Substitute for silver in coins that are being considered by authorities range from aluminum to zirconium to plastic.

Gun Accident Kills Hunter

A 71-year-old Petaluma hunter was killed in Novato yesterday when the gun he was unloading accidentally discharged.

Herman Hazlett had returned to the Corda Gun Club on Novato Boulevard about noon after an unsuccessful morning hunting deer in the area, the coroner's office reported.

He was sitting at a long table unloading the gun when it went off. He died immediately from gunshot wounds in the head. About 20 other hunters were in the camp at the time.

Hazlett was president of Bonsen Milling Co., Petaluma, since 1956 and was formerly general manager of M. Bonsen Co.

A native of Nebraska, he had lived in Petaluma since 1914.

He was a member of Petaluma Post 28 of the American Legion and Petaluma Elks Lodge 901, and a charter and life member of the Petaluma Golf and Country Club.

Surviving him are his wife, Lillian; a daughter, Mrs. Yvonne McCoy of Los Altos; a sister, Mrs. Fred Seaman of Petaluma, and two grandchildren.

The funeral will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. at Sorensen Funeral Home, Petaluma. Burial will be in Cypress Hill Memorial Park, Petaluma.

Truck At Fire, Rolls Backward, Hits Boy, Woman

An 11-year-old boy and a 62-year-old woman, both of Mill Valley, were struck yesterday by a runaway truck which the owner, David Wilson, had parked so that he could help fight a fire.

Mrs. John P. Fleming, 62, of 116 Montford Avenue, and Charles Cutting, 11, of 314 Ferndale Avenue, who had apparently been walking on Montford Avenue near Molino Avenue to watch the fire, were advised to see their own doctors.

Wilson, a Mill Valley volunteer fireman, had parked his own pickup truck near the fire, California Highway Patrolmen reported. It slipped backward, triking the two onlookers, at 2:55 p.m.

The fire damaged some old clothing and furniture and scorched wiring in the garage owned by G. A. Herve at 478 Molino Avenue, firemen said. The cause was undetermined.

San Rafael Manager Returns To His Desk

San Rafael City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen was back at his desk today after a second spell in hospital for treatment of injuries suffered in an April 14 auto accident.

He underwent surgery in San San Rafael General Hospital week for a broken ankle which had failed to heal properly.

OBITUARIES

Sarah Riznik Rites Held

A private funeral was held yesterday for Sarah Riznik, 86, of San Francisco, widow of Liezer Riznik of Corte Madera.

Mrs. Riznik died Saturday in a San Francisco hospital after a long illness.

She and her husband lived in Marin County for 16 years before they moved to San Francisco in 1954.

She is survived by two sons, Carl Q. Riznik of Ross, and Joseph Q. Riznik of San Anselmo, and a grandson, Barnes Riznik of Brimfield, Mass.

BENJAMIN DUGAN

Benjamin Dugan, 47, of 27 Middle Way, Fairfax, employed by a drilling company in Nigeria, died there Aug. 27 after a short illness.

With him were his wife and four young children who had joined him in Africa about a month earlier. Dugan began work with the company last December and the family had planned to stay in Nigeria about a year.

His body was flown back for burial at St. Louis, Mo., where he was born. He was a resident of Fairfax for four years.

Surviving him are his wife, Vilia; two sons, Christopher, 8 and Jeffery, 5; two daughters, Karen, 4 and Susan, 2; two brothers and two sisters.

WORKSHOP IDEAS

How To Save In Education

By ROBERT STREBEIGH

A fresh approach to providing quality education in a low-income community was outlined Saturday to a group of Marin County educational leaders.

The occasion — sponsored by the Marin County School Boards Association—was a workshop attended by 35 trustees and administrators from most of Marin County's 25 school districts.

Stanley Oswalt, superintendent of the Rowland School District in Los Angeles County demonstrated that careful planning can lead to a better educational product that need not cost a great deal more.

For its 720 seventh and eighth grade students, the district departed from the conventional school with its concept of the self-contained classroom. Instead, they created three schools-within-a-school, cluster-type classrooms for 240 students each taught by a team of seven teachers.

Appropriately enough, Corte Madera's Granada School is just such a grouping of buildings, each one a cluster of classrooms all open and visible to each other.

The teachers in a team—with whom the students would remain for a two-year program—were chosen for their ability to teach several subjects: one to handle music, art and social sciences; another for science and social studies; another for language, art and social studies; another for language and math.

Dividends of the team method, according to Oswalt, were: the return of responsibility for the curriculum and teaching method from the principal to the teacher; improved teacher morale, higher quality education and closer teacher-pupil relationships.

For a cost-conscious community, a solution was found to relieve teachers of some of the burdonsome clerical work connected with attendance records, lunch and milk money collection and PTA membership. A full-time music teacher was released and replaced with five young people who work five hours a day for $1.50 an hour. "At that rate they have to be pretty dedicated young people," Oswalt said, "but it works.

"There is a revolutionary change in what we can expect from the state legislature as far as financing is concerned," said Marion B. Sloss, chief of the state Bureau of Administrative Services."

Getting financial support from the legislature, according to Sloss, has hitherto depended largely on "the emotional appeal of special programs." He cited such programs as aid to the physically handicapped, the gifted child and the mentally retarded. It now begins to appear, he said, that there will be more support for regular school programs.

He credited proliferating federal aid-to-education programs with providing much of the impetus for this "revolutionary change" in Sacramento. Sloss said that under the Economic Opportunity Act, for instance, "Head Start programs gave 21,000 California youngsters pre-school experience."

Time may show, according to Sloss, that the "dropout problem at the secondary level may be greatly helped by pre-school experience."

To the gathering at the Granada School, he predicted tax reforms in school finances and equalization of basic aid to school districts.

An attempt at such reforms and equalization was described by David Doerr, chief consultant to the Assembly Committee on Revenue and Taxation: the Unruh-Petris Bill, defeated this year in the legislature.

Doerr said the bill will be reintroduced at the next regular session of the legislature.

This bill, among other things, would reduce the burden of property taxes on the local level and provide for financing of state capital improvements from current revenues rather than entirely from bonds.

Doerr said that increased income taxes and sales taxes would be used to offset the loss of property tax revenues.

Among these would be an increase in the cigarette tax from three cents to eight cents a pack and a revision of the income tax from 1-to-7 per cent to 1-to-15 per cent.

These and other changes would provide an additional $508 million of revenue to be allocated: $138 million to replace funds lost as a result of exemptions, $335 million for an average 25 per cent property tax reduction and $35 million for improved educational programs.

Two Still Out, Three Felons Are Due Back

As the search continued today for the two convicted killers who escaped out of San Quentin Prison, officials there were preparing to receive three captured escapees back in.

Reports that murder partners Jimmie L. Bushbaum, 29, and Arthur G. Jones, 32, who escaped Thursday, were seen in Novato and near Sacramento were checked out during the weekend and proved false, Associate Warden James W. L. Park said today.

The two men, serving sentences for the slaying of a San Bernardino County man during a robbery, escaped over the San Rafael-Richmond Bridge in a stolen car.

Meanwhile, two men who escaped over the wall Aug. 11 await extradition proceedings at The Dalles, Ore., where they were caught in a stolen car Aug. 23.

Donald Padgett, 31, and Harold Roney, 35, are expected to begin the journey back to their cells later this week, Park said.

They escaped from San Quentin using a hook thrown to the top of the wall while a guard was decoyed by an as-yet untraced call.

A convict who walked away from the prison's Lake County work camp was caught Friday in Denver, Colo., after six months of freedom.

Jerry C. Grech, 36, was alledgedly attempting to burglarize a bar when he was captured and is suspected of other burglaries since his escape in March, said Park.

He was originally imprisoned in December, 1960, for possessing marijuana and had served four years of a six month-to-10 year sentence when he was paroled in 1964. He was at the work camp for violation of parole.

Fire In New Home Injures Housewife

Fire broke out in a new home in Novato last night as the owners were moving in, doing $5,000 to $6,000 damage and sending the wife to hospital with burns and shock.

Mrs. Hollis B. Tara was putting clothes in a clothes closet in the new home at 1418 Cambridge Street when flames suddenly flared up, burning her on the hand, reported Chief George J. Cavallero of the Novato Fire Department.

Her husband, an Air Force colonel, attempted to put out the fire with water from a bathroom faucet before calling the fire department, Cavallero said. The flames spread through the master bedroom, destroyed one wall and spread smoke through the house.

Mrs. Tara was taken to Hamilton Air Force Base Hospital and held overnight for treatment of burns and shock. She was to be released today.

Chief Cavallero, who made the $5,000-$6,000 damage estimate, was able to offer no explanation for the sudden fire.

Death Comes As On Television

ROME, Ga. (AP)—Police say Mrs. Shirley Williams told them her husband, Malcolm, 19, took out a .32 caliber pistol and said he was going to show her "how they do on television."

Mrs. Williams, also 19, told Asst. Police Chief Frank Perry yesterday that Williams took cartridges from the six-shot pistol, placed the gun to his head and pulled the trigger.

Perry said Williams, a construction worker, died instantly from a gunshot wound in the head.

Man Loses Left Arm In Whirling Propeller

Raymond Helton, 32, was disconnecting a starter booster line. He was reported in satisfactory condition at O'Connor Hospital.

Cardinal Faces 'Serious' Surgery

BOSTON (AP)—Richard Cardinal Cushing says he will undergo surgery "of a serious nature," when he returns from the Vatican Ecumenical Council in Rome this week.

In a dispatch today from Rome to the Boston Globe, the 70-year-old prelate's comment was disputed by his personal physician, Dr. Richard Wright of Milton.

"In all honesty, there is nothing that really has to be done," Dr. Wright said, "certainly nothing serious. I would swear on a stack of Bibles that there's nothing serious."

High, Low

NEW YORK (UPI) — The highest temperature reported to the U.S. Weather Bureau Sunday excluding Hawaii and Alaska, was 100 at Cotulla, Tex. Lowest temperature reported today was 20 at Ely, Nev.

Pickets Off At Five Space Areas

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — Striking Boeing Co. missile mechanics today removed pickets from four of five space center entrances, clearing the way for a return to work by hundreds of moonport construction workers.

The Boeing members of the International Association of Machinists (AFL-CIO) were complying with a government order that directed all Boeing personnel to use one entrance and told the strikers to picket at that gate only.

About half of the 3,500-man building tradesmen at the cape refused to cross the picket lines last Thursday and Friday. The walkout crippled key construction projects at the huge Project Apollo men-to-the-moon base.

Nearly all Boeing's machinists were away from work but the company's Minuteman-2 missile testing work was proceeding with supervisory personnel. Other rocket projects were not seriously affected.

The strike was called Thursday when negotiations for a new contract fell through, largely because of a job security dispute. Bargaining talks were scheduled to resume today at Boeing headquarters in Seattle.

Novato Fan Injured While Burning Trash

Mark Richards, 17, of 96 Montego Key, Bel Marin Keys, was reported in satisfactory condition at Novato General Hospital today after suffering first and second degree burns in an accident yesterday.

Richards was burning trash at 12:15 p.m. when his clothes caught fire, the hospital reported.

Humphrey Not Behind 8 Ball

Said Humphrey: "I've been behind the eight-ball so often, I thought it was time for a change."

Thief Takes Clothes

The theft of clothes valued at $234 was reported late Saturday to the Marin County sheriff's office. Frank W. Tibechs of Richmond said the clothes were stolen from his car, parked in the parking lot of the Northgate Shopping Center.

Burglars Ransack Mill Valley Home

Burglars pried open a window at the home of James F. Henthorne in Mill Valley Saturday night, ransacked the bedroom and left with $48 worth of loot including a jewelry case, cuff links, tie bars and $13 in change.

Henthorne telephoned police at 12:20 a.m. yesterday saying that he and his wife had returned to their home at 25 Locke Lane at about midnight and, preparing to retire, discovered burnt book matches on the bedroom rug.

They then noticed dresser drawers had been ransacked. Entry was made by prying open a window.

"To create the love of music in a child ...is an artist's finest reward!"

No artist is better qualified to speak such words than Carmen Dragon, conductor of the Standard School Broadcast, heard by millions of children in their classrooms, and adults in their homes, on Thursdays throughout the school year.

"What a thrill," says Dorothy Warenskjold, "to open a world of music to American children"... "It is a wonderful privilege to share in this creative work," says Paulena Carter... "The child with a love of music grows into a richer person," says Norma Zimmer.

For these stars of opera, concert, radio and television, as for many others, the Standard School Broadcast helped to start their present successful careers. They have performed regularly since, with enthusiasm.

These distinguished artists are only a few of hundreds who have made this unique program, from opera to folk music to symphony to jazz, an American educational asset. They gladly take time from their busy lives to perform with Standard Oil because..."To create the love of music in a child is an artist's finest reward."

"We Are Americans," the 38th annual Standard School Broadcast radio series, begins October 21, 1965. Please consult local papers for time and station.

Just as they learn the appreciation of music, young people also learn that the man at the Sign of the Chevron means friendly service to the family car.

WASHOUT—Damaged autos washed down slopes of Mount Washington in a flood of water and mud and left this scene Saturday in Los Angeles. The unseasonal rain dumped 1.25 inches of rain in one hours. (UPI Telephoto)

Sunny Skies Reign Over Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP) — High temperatures and sunny skies were predicted for the Los Angeles area today after a weekend of unpredictable, heavy rainfall.

Torrential cloudbursts in scattered locations triggered mudslides and traffic smashups Saturday, including one collision that killed a young Pasadena couple.

Edward Pryor, 21, and Mavis Jamerson, 16, died when their sports car went out of control on Washington Boulevard in Pasadena in the rain. The collision left four other persons injured.

The sudden cloudburst struck Los Angeles with 1.25 inches of rain between 2:15 and 3:15 p.m.—the heaviest one-hour downpour in 51 years.

Lightning bolts struck power lines and temporarily darkened Thousand Oaks, Santa Paula, Moorpark, Simi and nearby Oxnard in Ventura County.

The heavy rains caused postponement of the California Angels - Baltimore Orioles game, where batboys swam in one dugout that flooded within 10 minutes.

The heaviest previous rain was on Feb. 18, 1914, when 1.51 inches fell in one hour. The average annual rainfall for Los Angeles is 14.68 inches.

Part of the Golden State Freeway near Glendale was blocked for a while Saturday because of mudslides. There were also heavy slides of mud—and water—in Highland Park, where water was reported at depths of five feet. There was widespread damage to flooded homes, but no injuries reported, police said.

Sunday's weather was capricious—intermittent showers and patches of sunlight glittering off snow-capped mountain peaks.

Southern California's first snowfall of the year was reported on 8,516-foot Mount San Jacinto near Palm Springs—where temperatures were between 32 and 38 degrees.

Another .06 of an inch of rain fell yesterday, raising the storm's two-day total in Los Angeles to 1.37, indicating drizzling rains that continued after Saturday's downpour. The season total was upped to 1.73—the highest ever measured since the U.S. Weather Bureau began keeping records here, in 1877.

Mount Baldy also recorded an inch of snow yesterday—the earliest snowfall in 15 years. Mount San Gorgonia, also near Palm Springs, was blanketed with snow. Tire chains were required of motorists on Angeles Crest Highway.

Two Men Killed In Truckee Crash

TRUCKEE (AP)—Two Anderson, Calif., brothers, Ronald E. Wehunt, 16, and David M. Wehunt, 15, were killed and a third brother, Donald, 17, seriously injured in a two-car collision on State Route 89 near Truckee yesterday.

The highway patrol said a pickup truck driven by Donald Wehunt went out of control on a curve yesterday and collided with a second pickup driven by Roy E. Sheffield, 48, of Sacramento.

Sheffield and the injured Wehunt were taken to Tahoe Forest Hospital in Truckee where Wehunt was reported in serious condition. Sheffield's condition was listed as fair.

U.S. Weather Has Many Contrasts

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The nation's weather picture continued to be a portrait in contrasts this morning, as summery breezes hovered over the East and arctic winds raked the Rockies.

Temperatures dipped into the upper 20s this morning in the central Rocky Mountains while some areas reported snow flurries. Casper, Wyo. recorded one inch of new snow yesterday.

Readings in the 40s prevailed from the northern Rockies to the central plains. In the southeastern portion of the country, morning temperatures were mostly in the 70s.

Temperatures in the Southeast generally were above 90 yesterday afternoon.

Thunderstorms this morning were soaking those areas on the dividing line between the western cold front and the eastern warm front.

By shortly after midnight a six-hour rainfall accumulation at Oklahoma City measured 1.06 inches. Chanute in southeastern Kansas had 1.58 inches and the eastern Iowa community of Ottumwa had 1.60 inches. Cedar Rapids reported 1.04 inches.

Heavy rains yesterday in southwestern Oklahoma caused flash flooding. At Altus Air Force Base 4.07 inches of rain fell. Hobart, Okla. had 3.04 inches.

In a 24-hour period ended Sunday, Crowell, Tex. recorded 8.29 inches of precipitation.

An apparent tornado struck the Neenah and Appleton, Wis. areas yesterday, damaging homes and other structures. A cement block building housing a volunteer fire department was destroyed.

A tornado also swept through the Oklahoma City suburb of Dell City. Many homes were damaged slightly.

In the Wisconsin and Oklahoma twister storms no injuries were reported.

The Far West and the interior Southeast experienced clear skies this morning.

YRs Hold Off Kuchel Censure

SAN DIEGO (AP)—Leaders of the California Young Republicans have delayed acting on a proposed resolution to censure Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, R-Calif.

The resolution would criticize him for allegedly becoming a "rubber stamp for the Johnson Administration."

Blazing Gas Ignites Autos After Wreck

ENCINITAS (AP)—One tanker truck hit by another loosed a flood of gasoline which ran down street gutters, ignited, and destroyed eight autos and a small office today.

The sheriff's office reported no injuries.

The crash occurred at a deserted downtown intersection at 5 a.m.

Blazing gasoline ran down gutters one and one half blocks in two directions.

Sheriff's Sgt. Les Hill said the gasoline came from a tank that ruptured when one of the tanker trucks—parked beside U.S. 101—was hit by the other.

Firemen, deputies and the Highway Patrol arrived at the scene before the gasoline ignited. They all began to move cars.

"They got there just in time," Hill said. "Just as deputies started to move cars, the gas ignited where they had parked."

Firemen had the flames extinguished by 6:30 a.m.

Mare Island was originally named by General Vallejo, "La Isla de la Yegua" or "the Island of the Mare," to commemorate the recovery of a much-prized old white mare that swam to the island from a boat that capsized in a squall.

28 New Teachers Reported For San Rafael's Schools

There are five new teachers at San Rafael High School and 23 new teachers in the San Rafael Elementary School District, the San Rafael City Schools office reported yesterday.

There also is a new assistant dean at San Rafael High School, Samuel Muscolino, and three new members of distirct staffs as follows:

Muir Woods Group Planning For Fair

A "little world's fair" will be presented by the Muir Woods Improvement Assn. on Oct. 9 and 10 at the Assn. clubhouse, reported President William A. Rice.

The Mountain Fair, an annual fund-raising affair for the club, will feature 10 booths depicting life in countries around the world. Displays of the work of 15 Marin artists will be part of the annual event, reported Rice.

Technical Training

Peter B. Twede, son of Dr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Twede Jr., of 168 La Cumbre, Greenbrae is undergoing technical training at Keesler Air Force Base, Miss., as a U.S. Air Force air traffic specialist. Twede is a graduate of Marin Catholic High School, Kentfield.

How come 750,000 people in the Bay area are insured by Metropolitan Life?

Designed for today's needs...up-to-date...that's the kind of protection you'll find in the policies offered by Metropolitan Life. And people here and everywhere are turning to Metropolitan Life for fresh new developments in life insurance programs. For example:

New—a plan especially designed for young men with growing families

We call this our Extra Protection plan. We created it especially for young men, and women too, who are starting families and find themselves a bit squeezed around the budget.

Under this plan, a permanent $4,000 policy, for example, carries the Extra Protection of another $4,000. This benefit lasts for ten years—while your children are growing up, for instance—and at the end of the period can be converted without a physical examination to as much as $8,000 of insurance, giving you $12,000 in all.

This Extra Protection plan is just part of the up-to-the-minute selection of life and health insurance plans you'd expect from America's leading life insurance company.

It's one of the reasons so many of your friends and neighbors are insured by Metropolitan. Another is Metropolitan's famous Family Security Check-Up, a written analysis that pinpoints your family's financial situation today and projects tomorrow's opportunities.

Ask your Metropolitan adviser to give you one this week. There's no obligation ...except to those you love.

More choose Metropolitan Life millions more than any other company

There are many reasons why Metropolitan Life insures 45,000,000 people—more than any other company. One good reason is local, personal service from the Metropolitan advisers at your nearest office:

PRESCRIPTION: ACTION

80th Birthday Approaches For 'Youthful' Stuntman

BLYTHE, Calif. (AP)—Character actor - stuntman Duane Hamlin, approaching his 80th birthday, has a prescription for old age: Action.

Hamlin has thrived on it. He recalls his youth this way:

At 18, he piloted a stagecoach through holdup country. Later he drew Army pay as a scout for hunting Mexican bandit Pancho Villa. In World War I, he flew with Eddie Rickenbacker.

Today, virtually the only sign of age on the red-bearded, robust film veteran is a tiny wire leading to a hearing aid in his left ear.

"I'll be 80 next month," says Hamlin, "but I don't feel my age. What I really like to do these days is challenge kids in their 20s to a tussle. I guess the fact that I was a stunt man kept me in shape."

Born in Shiprock, N.M., Nov. 5, 1885, Hamlin had a brief stagecoach career. Six robberies in a row—the last ending when he shot and killed his assailant—deterred him he said.

After the war, he turned to the movies. He recalls proudly that he crashed a plane in Clark Gable's "Hell's Angels," wrestled a gorilla in a Tarzan film, and rode horseback garbed as an Arab in Rudolph Valentino's "The Sheik."

Stunts were always his specialty. As recently as 1960, Hamlin dived 65 feet into a river for the cameras. Such feats continue to earn him roles in television Westerns — "Maverick," "Death Valley Days" and "Wagon Train."

Hamlin married five times. Now he lives alone, puttering about a remote desert ranch 18 miles south of Blythe, prospecting for gold and awaiting calls from Hollywood.

Looking back, Hamlin offers this comment on his life of derring-do: "The most dangerous occupation I've ever had was being a husband."

MOLLY CREECH RICE
'I'll bag me some squirrels'

Molly Waits For A Chance For Shooting

HARLAN, Ky. (AP) — Molly Creech Rice waits impatiently for this time of year so she can hike alone in her native southeastern Kentucky mountains and "bag me a few squirrels."

Molly or Jack, as her family always called her, is wiry and leathery-faced with sparkling eyes that belie her 81 years.

"I used to win some hard shooting contests from men," she recalls, "and I guess I still could although my eyes aren't as good as they used to be."

The second oldest child in her family, Molly found farm work took her time in childhood with little chance to play dolls house.

"I plowed many a furrow then and still do," she said, pointing proudly to her one-acre garden of beans, corn and potatoes at her home in nearby Cumberland.

Molly tagged after her father and cousins on nighttime raccoon hunts through the mountains when she was a child.

"When I was 10, I remember daddy got a new Winchester lever gun and I wanted nothing more in this world than to fire that gun," she said.

"It wasn't long before I finally did and I started hunting, lots of times snitching the gun and leaving early in the morning only to get a whipping when I got home."

Traditionalists Stall On Ballot On Freedom

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Church Traditionalists regrouped today for another attempt to block an Ecumenical Council declaration on the right of all men to worship according to their beliefs.

The 2,500 prelates in St. Peter's Basilica were due to vote on the declaration of religious liberty at the close of debate today or tomorrow.

Conservatives have mounted an attempt to stave off a showdown, according to a source at the Secretariat for Promoting Christian Unity.

The traditionalists, mainly Italian and Spanish, asked council officials to delay the vote on the grounds that "there would be too many negative votes which would show the church in a bad light," according to this source.

The vote, however, to test the real

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H®. Ask for Preparation H Suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Available at all drug counters.

Doleburgers

10 slices Dole Pineapple (No. 2 or 1 lb., 4½ oz. can)
½ cup pineapple syrup
½ cup soy sauce
1 teaspoon ginger
1 teaspoon sugar
¼ teaspoon garlic powder
¾ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons chopped onion
2 pounds ground beef

Drain pineapple, saving ¼ cup of the syrup. Combine in a bowl, soy sauce, ginger, sugar, garlic powder, and salt. Stir until sugar is dissolved. Add 3 tablespoons of the soy mixture, the pineapple syrup, and chopped onion to the meat. Mix thoroughly. Form patties and cook on barbecue grill. While meat is cooking, grill pineapple slices that have been dipped in the soy mixture. Serve each burger topped with slice of grilled pineapple. Makes 10 hamburgers.

Cluster Housing Plan Goes Before Mill Valley Council

Mill Valley City Council, in a heavy agenda at today's 8 p.m. meeting in City Hall, will consider the "cluster type" planned unit development William S. Allen requests for a 22-acre subdivision in Blithedale Canyon.

Allen plans 15 single-family homes, leaving 12 acres as open space.

The council will hold hearings on rezoning Alto Bowl No. 1 of 137 acres from unclassified to single family residential with a minimum of 15,000 square feet per lot, and on rezoning 206 acres of North Ridge Annexation from unclassified to a single family planned development which has no minimum lot size.

Council will hear a plan to rezone an area on West Blithedale Avenue between Oakdale and Hillside avenues, now interim duplex, to single family. It will hear a request for stop signs on Azalea Drive at Hollyhock and Aster courts and a resolution amending the small craft harbor loan agreement.

Sausalito Council Sets Special Planning Meet

Sausalito City Council will turn its attention to master planning and zoning of county areas adjacent to the city at a special meeting at 8 p.m. today in city hall.

Mayor Jan Paul Dyk called the special meeting Saturday, limited to discussion of the planning and zoning matters.

NEW McGRAW-HILL PLANT AT HALF-WAY MARK

Although the "hyperbolic parabaloid" roof on the McGraw-Hill Book Co. office and warehouse north of Novato is now only 30 per cent complete, construction is expected to reach the two-thirds mark by Nov. 1. Roof will be completed by Dec. 15 and at that time some office sections will be ready for partitions. The company hopes for occupancy by Jan. 15. The building was designed by architect John Bolles; MacDonald and Nelson is the contractor. (Independent-Journal-American Helicopters photo).

Freight Truck Firm Declares Dividend

LUBBOCK, Tex.—The board of directors of T.I.M.E. Freight, Inc., coast to coast motor carrier, has declared a dividend of 14 cents per share on common stock of the company payable Oct. 29 to stockholders of record at close of business Oct. 15.

In the Bay Area T.I.M.E. operates from its Oakland terminal to the eastern seaboard.

On the west side of C Street at Third in San Rafael in 1866 stood the Bay View Livery and Stables owned by Michael Murray. It was destroyed by fire in 1880.

Built in 1869, St. Raphael's Church was the second place of worship on the same property. The first was Mission San Rafael Arcangel, which fell in ruins in the early 1860s.

Tints, Tunes New At Fair-Anselm; New Positions With Calaveras

New music and art supplies store on the mall of the Fair-Anselm Shopping Center, Fairfax, is called Tints and Tunes.

Principals are James and Helen Drake, who are moving from Larkspur to Fairfax to be near their new business. The Drakes are already involved in one other music store—the Tiburon Turntable—with Paula Porter, who continues in Tiburon.

Tints and Tunes sells guitars, some band instruments, records, sheet music, radio and tape recorders and a general line of art supplies. Guitar lessons are arranged.

The store is open from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Mondays through Saturdays.

OPERATING ENGINEERS LOCAL NO. 3 moved into new offices this morning at 76 Belvedere Street, San Rafael. The office was formerly located on Tamalpais Avenue, San Rafael.

A NOTE from Paul N. Gardner of Mill Valley, who closed out his "unabused used car business" on Third Street, San Rafael last fall, asks that his present activities be cleared up, since he has heard himself credited both with selling Volkswagens in Mill Valley and driving a milk truck in San Rafael.

He now owns and operates a model car speedway in San Francisco—G and G Speedways at 2516 Mission Street. Gardner's former partner, Tom Garvin, from his early used car days in San Francisco, is in with him on this. They have three eight-lane tracks, $10,000 worth of cars and parts, work seven days a week, and maintain an "unabused used slot-car department."

Boyd Stark

THREE MARINITES have been advanced to new positions in the financial department of the Calaveras Cement Co., a division of Flintkote Co.

Robert J. Boyd of San Rafael has been named director of financial and administrative services. William F. Stark of San Rafael is new credit manager. For the past 10 years he has been with Shell Oil Co. Phillip D. Pythian of Mill Valley has been promoted to manager of personnel and insurance.

NEW ADDITION to the staff of the Family Service Agency of Marin County is Joseph France. He replaces Mrs. Constance Bruce, who left the agency for a part-time position with Marin Community Mental Health Services. France is a psychiatric social worker who has specialized in general family counseling. Prior to coming to Marin he was a third-year fellow in clinical casework programs sponsored by the department of psychiatry at Mt. Zion Hospital and Medical Center, San Francisco.

France

E. D. BULLARD JR., president of the E. D. Bullard Co., Sausalito, manufacturer of industrial safety equipment, has been elected to the president's council of the American Institute of Management.

MARINITES OUT OF TOWN. Leon D. Adams of Sausalito was guest speaker at the Ohio Wholesale Wine Dealers Assn. dinner in Cincinnati last Thursday . . . Kenneth A. Nelson of San Rafael attended the home office sales seminar of Mead Johnson Laboratories in Evansville, Ind., last week . . . Paul Mills, manager of the Fairfax branch of Bank of America, and O. E. Helgeson, assistant vice president of the San Rafael office, attended a management seminar of University of Southern California's Graduate School of Business Administration at Pacific Palisades last week.

THOMAS N. LOCKE of Leland's Jewelry, San Rafael, has completed the diamond training program of the Gemological Institute of America which involves a study of all phases of diamond technology. He has been in the jewelry trade 25 years, five of them with Leland's.

Aerospace Leading Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed irregularly higher today with speculative issues and aerospace stocks strong.

It was an active day but one in which many of the wheelhorses among steels, motors and chemicals were resting while traders boomed secondary issues.

SCM Corp. was one of the biggest favorites, rising more than three points. Trading was halted temporarily in SCM due to accumulated orders.

Magnavox climbed about 4 points as it resumed its strength of last week on prospects of color television. Radio Corp. made a new high and showed a net gain of more than a point. Zenith rose nearly 2.

United Aircraft, up 2, was among the strong performers in the Aerospace group.

Some of the merger-oriented rails made strides, New York Central rising more than 2 and Pennsylvania a full point.

Eastman Kodak lost nearly 2 while Du Pont was a 2-point gainers and General Electric rose 1.

Volume for the day was estimated at 7.1 million shares, compared with 6.62 million Friday.

Here was the picture near the close:

SCM, which announced a new office copying machine, was all over the tape. Delayed in opening, it jumped 2 points to 32¾ on a block of 60,000 shares. Trading was halted later because of an influx of orders. The issue reopened on another 60,000-share block, up 3¼ at 34. It later hit 35.

Sunray DX Oil also was very active and up about a point. Magnavox also was actively traded and advanced 3 points.

Gulf & Western Industries, which announced plans to buy up to 2.1 million shares of New Jersey Zinc, spurted nearly 5 points.

RCA was up about a point to a new high.

The aircrafts were strong with Boeing ahead more than 2 points. United Aircraft and Douglas were up about half a point.

State Reveals Route 17 Still Not Off Board

Plans for the proposed Route 17 which will run from Point San Quentin to Point Reyes Station are still being studied and discussed according to a State Division of Highways newsletter.

"Location, type of facility and number of lanes are to be determined," the newsletter reads.

Residents of San Anselmo and Fairfax last week reiterated their opposition to the route being channeled through their towns. They spoke at a hearing on the West Marin Master Plan.

The newsletter also reports that work is 60 per cent complete on reconstruction between .3 mile south of Irwin Street and Third Street in San Rafael.

This project includes extension of Grand Avenue across the San Rafael Creek to East Francisco Boulevard, grading and paving of Second Street between the extension and Francisco Boulevard and realigning the Irwin Street off-ramp.

The newsletter reports that a project to construct .8 miles of a four-lane divided road on Route 131 along Tiburon Boulevard between Blackfield Drive and beyond Reed Ranch Road is almost 50 per cent complete. The project is slated for completion by late fall.

The letter also reports that a channelization study is underway at the westerly end of the Route 1 junction with Route 101.

Membership Fee On Board Agenda

The Tamalpais High School District board, meeting at 8 p.m. today in the district office, in Larkspur, will consider renewing membership in the California School Boards Assn.

Membership fee this year is $819, up $400 from last year.

Trustees will also hear reports on summer workshops attended by faculty members.

Petaluma Paper Has New Chief Editor

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (UPI)—Floyd Wynne, managing editor of the Herald and News newspaper here, has been named editor and publisher of the Petaluma, Calif., Argus-Courier.

The Petaluma paper was purchased recently by the Scripps League, which also operates the Herald and News. Wynne has been managing editor here since 1957.

Fairfax Board Sets Names Discussion

A name for the new intermediate school planned for Fairfax will be discussed at a meeting of the Fairfax School District trustees tomorrow at 7:45 p.m. in Manor School.

Also on the agenda is a review of the recreation agreement between the city and the school district.

Base Honors Civilian Aides For Ideas

Robert G. Johnson of 31 Loma Vista, Novato, was honored Thursday at Hamilton Air Force Base as the top civilian employee in offering sugestions during the year.

Johnson offered 14 suggestions. He received cash awards in various amounts for eight of these.

Johnson, who is employed with the 78th Civil Engineering Squadron on the base, is a member of the Novato planning commission and twice has been a candidate for the Novato city council.

He and 10 other civilian employees of the base were given Air Defense Command certificates of recognition at a ceremony in the office of Col. Ralph M. Wanderer Jr., base commander.

Japanese Boy Quickly At Home On Campus

An eighteen-year-old Japanese exchange scholar has picked up one new nickname, three new "brothers" and a "sister" and a lot of new impressions.

Takashi Sato from Sakaide is now known as just Tak at Terra Linda High School where he is enrolled as a senior.

His host family at 858 Patricia Way, San Rafael—where he is staying with the David M. Brownes — includes: Ken, 17; Bill, 15; Barbara, 14, and Dick, 12. The three elder Browne children attend Terra Linda and Dick is a student at Vallecito. schooling broken by three two-

Sato used to year-round week vacations, has had no trouble adjusting to the longer vacation periods in the United States. He finds there has been plenty of sightseeing to take up the time.

At the end of the school year, he will make the summer bus tour available to all foreign exchange students.

San Rafael Man Gets Decoration

Army Major Ivan L. Slavich Jr., son of Ivan L. Slavich of 505 Fourth Street, San Rafael, has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for his heroic action while piloting a helicopter in Viet Nam, May 22, 1963.

The major's citation read: "As the helicopters approached the landing zones, intense ground-fire from the Viet Cong was received, damaging Major Slavich's aircraft. Nevertheless, he voluntarily made low-level firing passes on the enemy emplacements and thus neutralized several enemy positions. . ."

Ross Citizen Leads Cleanup In High Sierra

Sierra scenery these days is not only lovelier — it's cleaner thanks to a group of men and women led by Rick Polsdorfer of Ross.

Polsdorfer headed a week-long hike in the mountains recently by 36 members of the Sierra Club to clean up the mess thoughtless campers had left behind.

They filled 200 sacks with three tons of beer cans, broken bottles, tin foil, discarded clothing and other trash. It was packed out of the mountains by muleback.

Among the clean-up brigade and their children Ed and Edie of San Rafael and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Conrad of Woodacre.

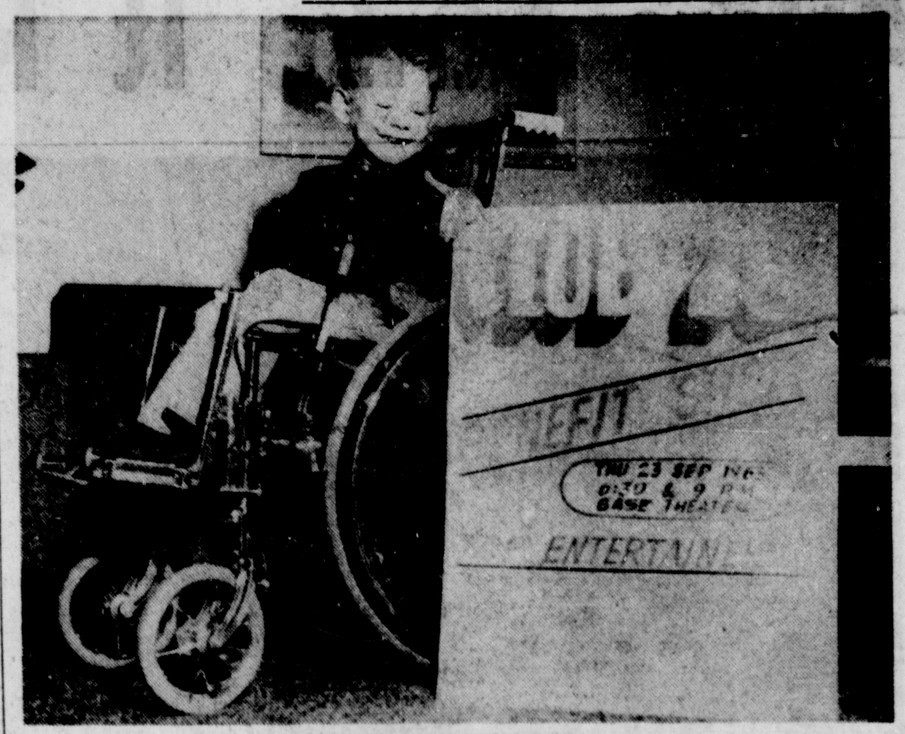
They hiked from Mountain Meadow Ranch in the Trinity Alps to points in Shasta and Klamath National Forests to give the area that clean look for next year.

Said Polsdorfer: "Litter prevention is just as important to the club as cleaning up. If only people were a little more thoughtful, this type of trip of ours would be unnecessary one day."

Red Cross Meeting Speaker Announced

Howard Topping, vice president of the San Jose branch of the Bank of America, will be speaker at the annual meeting and volunteer recognition ceremony of the Marin County Chapter, American Red Cross, Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Peacock Gap Country Club, San Rafael.

A governor of the American National Red Cross, Topping will speak on "program planning in a growing and changing area."



SMILING APPROVAL

Gary Lankford, 7, son of SM/Sgt. and Mrs. Paul Lankford of Hamilton Air Force Base, smiles his approval of the publicity poster which announces the forthcoming "Children Have A Potential" benefit show at the base theater Thursday. The show, with two performances at 6:30 and 9 p.m., will feature some of the best military talent at Hamilton. All donations at the two performances will benefit physically and mentally retarded children of the base personnel.

Legal Change May Settle Doctor Row

Thanks to a new law that went into effect Friday, the legal tussle between the Marin Hospital District and Dr. Stanford W. Ascherman may be out of court soon.

The district has refused staff privileges to Ascherman and hearings on his appeal of the decision have been stymied because doctors have refused to testify.

The hospital district had no power to subpoena witnesses, and the doctors refused to testify without being granted immunity from suits.

The new law now gives the district board, or a hearing officer, the power of subpoena. Ascherman's attorney, Harry Gonick, has proposed that the district suit, asking the court to clear up the problem, be dismissed so the district's hearing can start over again.

Harold F. Riede, attorney for the district, said he has not yet decided whether to advise the district board to go along with the request. At any rate, the court discussion, set for Monday, is due to be put over one week at both sides' agreement.

Scuba divers uncover secrets of lost civilizations

Mexico is blessed with a rich heritage. Its history includes advanced civilizations that predated the arrival of the Spaniards. Ancient Mexicans created corn by hybridizing tasty but scrawny weeds. They studied the stars, developed a calendar and plotted the movements of the stars, galaxies and planets.

A heritage like this—one that is known to date back to the dawn of time—is a serious responsibility. Mexico spends millions of dollars each year to dig, excavate, restore and study its many ancient ruins, lost cities and long-buried historical landmarks.

Whether unearthed by pick and shovel or found by scuba-wearing skindivers, these discoveries are adding much to the entire world's understanding of the earth and its peoples in pre-historic times.

If you want to study some interesting things about Mexico—free—send for a free illustrated booklet. Write "Know Mexico," Box 1900, New York 10019.

Presented in the interest of international goodwill by The Advertising Council, USA, the Consejo Nacional de la Publicidad, Mexico and the Newspaper Advertising Executives Association.

49ers Strike It Rich! Giants-Reds Tonight

Wow! 52-24 Win Over The Bears

George Halas, hat crunched down on his head and a can of orange pop held loosely in one hand, gazed stolidly ahead into a locker and said, "We were just inept against a good, vigorous team."

And that's about all the "Papa Bear," who founded the present Chicago Bears 46 years ago, had to say about that 52-24 thumping which the San Francisco 49ers handed his club yesterday.

The second wave of reporters to flock to the Bears' dressing room at grimy Kezar Stadium had trouble getting past a private cop.

"The coach said he has talked to all the reporters and nobody else can come in," the officer said.

But Halas was cordial enough after the press stormed the threshold.

"You can't take any credit away from the 49ers," he said. "They played a fine game. We were off and inept on offense and defense."

Quarterback John Brodie, who riddled the Bears with four touchdown passes while picking up 269 yards through the air, had a wry comment on the 49ers' side of the dressing rooms.

HUNGRY TEAM

"Nice to see you guys back," he said with a trace of a smile. "What kept us going today? Well, we're a kind of a hungry team, you know."

"I think that the ballplayers know that they can give anybody trouble on a given day if they put their best games together," Jack Christiansen, the conservative 49er coach, said afterward. "We also put all the breaks together and we called the right plays at the right time."

HIGHEST SCORE

The 49ers surged to score more points than they ever have before in a National Football League game.

"You don't expect to run up that score on anyone," commented Christiansen. "Definitely it was my greatest day as a coach. I hope this is indicative of the kind of year it is going to be, but I wish we could have saved some of those points for the close ones."

San Francisco defensive coach Dick Voris explained, "Last week, in the exhibition loss to the Rams, we stayed in one defense all day. We didn't want to show too much. This time we used the whole repertoire."

At first it seemed to be the start of another long season for the 49ers, who have been on the bottom of the NFL's Western Division two straight years. Roger Leclerc of the Bears kicked a 30 yard field goal and they held that 3-0 lead after a first period that saw Brodie draw some jeers for losing the ball on a fumble.

But then the "mosters of the midway" became unstuck defensively and the 49ers exploded for 24 points during a span of 12 minutes and 49 seconds.

San Francisco went ahead, 7-3, when John David Crow shot 18 yards up the middle for a touchdown and Tommy Davis kicked the first of seven conversions.

Some five minutes later, Davis added a 15 yard field goal and Brodie tacked on touchdown passes of 59 and 20 yards to veteran Bernie Casey and rookie Ken Willard.

That made it 24-3 at the half. Three more San Francisco TD's came across in the third period with Brodie and Casey combining on a 9 yarder and John then hitting Parks from 21 yards out.

The sixth 49er tally came when Charley Krueger, their linebacker, scooped the ball up after quarterback Bill Wade had lost it on a jarring tackle. Krueger went in from six yards away.

A 60 yard touchdown run by Gary Lewis closed out the 49ers scoring in the fourth period.

All wasn't good news for the 49ers, however. The club learned after the game that veteran defensive end Dan Colchico sustained a ruptured Achilles tendon and will be out for the season.

Baruna Is Second In Regatta

Belvedere resident Jim Michael's Baruna, the black beauty of the Bay Area fleet, was second to Vixen, a Hereshoff sloop, Saturday in the second annual St. Francis Perpetual Trophy yacht racing series.

Baruna missed by half a point of beating Vixen, a boat owned by Grant Hoag of the Balboa Yacht Club. Vixen, going into the fourth and final heat of the series Saturday, had to beat all 12 of her opponents and she did just that, covering the 17.2 mile course in 3:30:43, three minutes and 34 seconds ahead of second place Baruna.

Helping out Vixen at the start of Saturady's beat was the lack of wind. Baruna needs a stiff breeze to run well and the winds didn't pick up until the race was well on its way. Baruna was skippered by Denny Jordan throughout the series.

Laura, the 63-foot yawl owned by Briggs Cunningham of America's Cup and sports car racing fame, was third Saturday.

Big, Big Series In Cincy

CINCINNATI—The San Francisco Giants, hoping to extend their latest winning streak, open a very big series against the Cincinnati Reds tonight as the rough and tumble National League heads into the homestretch.

The Giants, leading the Los Angeles Dodgers by 3½ games and the Reds by 4½, are in a comfortable position on the top of the N.L. heap. With hopes of stretching the Giants' latest skein to three, manager Herman Franks will start either veteran southpaw Warren Spahn or young righthander Bob Bolin against Cincinnati's Jim Maloney, going after his 20th win of the year.

Yesterday Hal Lanier, with help from a slow roll and a fast burn, has found a new way to win a baseball game. The San Francisco Giants second baseman raced home from first base Sunday on a sacrifice bunt.

Lanier's feat broke a 2-2 tie and carried the National League leading Giants to a 4-2 victory over the Milwaukee Braves.

But the Braves barely noticed what Lanier had wrought. They were too busy watching Joe Torre fly into a towering rage at the first base umpire.

Lanier had singled to open the eighth inning, and Jimmy Davenport, a deft bunter, was sent up as a pinch hitter to sacrifice Lanier to second.

Davenport pushed the bunt down the first base line toward the charging Torre, who could have tossed to first to get Davenport. Instead, Torre elected to let the ball roll.

The ball inched its way up the chalk line while Torre hovered above it ready to pounce.

As the ball crept toward first base where Davenport was already standing, Lanier was speeding toward third base. Fi-

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

Stars Tourney Huge Success; A Big Boost For Youth Fund

It looks like the Marin Invitational Tournament of Stars is here to stay. Said Chairman William H. McDevitt at last night's awards banquet: "Our profits have exceeded our expectations. We're on the threshold of becoming a nationally-recognized tournament."

All the loot hasn't been counted yet, but McDevitt reported the tourney was "in the black" before one gallery ticket had been sold, what with considerable revenue pouring in from sponsors, entry fees of $150 per amateur and Saturday night's hilarious celebrity banquet.

McDevitt estimated 6,500 to 7,000 gallery tickets had been sold at $2 each, which adds up to a pretty penny for the Marin Youth Fund benefit.

MARINITE Jim Lange, "Capt. Show Biz" of KSFO, authored the bad gag of the day. Big Jim, you may remember, ripped his britches in last year's tourney and scored 89. Yesterday his pants stayed together as he shot an 80. "Just goes to show you," said Lange, "that a stitch in time saves nine."

FATHER LEONARD Scannell, the Hamilton AFB chaplain, got off a poor (for him) tee shot and Forrest "Music Man" Tucker chided, "See, I told you not to miss Mass this morning, Father."

YANKEE CLIPPER Joe DiMaggio, still a hero wherever he goes, arrived at the course by helicopter, quickly changed into golf togs and without a warmup belted a 230-yard drive straight down the first fairway. Joe, now a golf bug, grinned, "That shot alone was worth the trip." He flew back from N.Y. Sunday morning just in time for the tourney.

SAID HONORARY chairman Maurie Luxford, who has promoted more golf tourneys than you can shake a putter at, "This is the most intelligently planned and beautifully carried out tournament I've ever had the pleasure of working with."

BIGGEST GALLERIES followed Jim "Mr. Magoo" Backus, Forrest Tucker, Clint Eastwood, Gary Morton, DiMag, Marty "Route 66" Milner, Richard Crenna, Dan Rowan and Dick Martin.

"No shows" included Bing Crosby (sick), Ernie Tennessee Ford and Lucille Ball, but the crowd had a ball anyway. Great crowd, great weather, great tourney.

PEACOCK GAP

6,500 At 'Stars' Golf Tournament

A 20-year-old nationally-known amateur star, a Marinwood resident and three familiar Hollywood screen personalities stole the golfing show yesterday at the second annual Marin Invitational Tournament of Stars at Peacock Gap, San Rafael.

Best golf of the day was provided by Ron Cerrudo, the fine San Jose State College shotmaker, who toured the lush Peacock Gap course in three-under par 68 to lead the field of 120 golfers before a crowd estimated by tourney officials at 6,500. Never once straying above regulation figures, Cerrudo, who returned to the Bay Area Saturday night from a ninth place finish in the National Amateur tourney at Tulsa, Okla., fired three birdies and the rest pars.

Low net amateur in the field was former Marin County high school star Bob Brossier of Marinwood who equalled par 71 and with 9 big handicap strokes came in with a sparkling 62.

Bob Wilke, the villian in countless Western movies and now playing the role of the sheriff in TV's "The Legend of Jesse James," was low gross among the large field of show business personalities swinging away for the benefit of the Marin Youth Fund. Wilke carded a 73 to beat out former Western movie hero Bob Steele and actors John Larch and John Agar in the celebrity division. The three runners-up each had a 77.

Low net among the celebs was Martin Milner who made his name in television as one of the happy-go-lucky stars of "Route 66.'" The blond, freckled actor had a card of 78-15—63, beating out former baseball hero Joe DiMaggio (78-13—65) and Richard Crenna of TV's Slattery's People fame (78-12—66).

Cerrudo had identical nines of 34-34 for his 68, nosing out East Bay amateur star Steve Stimac (35-34—69) by a stroke. The Meadow Club's Dr. Marv Gilberg was third in gross scoring with a 72.

In best ball foursome scoring, the quartet of Robert Carson, Nels Cullenward, Dr. Allen Beallo and Chet Patterson won low gross with 65 and Bob Wilke, Lou Fazackerly, Rev. Leonard Scannell and Paul Flaherty won low net with 55.

Although some of the top name celebrities did not show up as advertised—notably Bing Crosby, who is ill, Lucille Ball, Tennessee Ernie Ford and Robert Sterling — the colorfully attired crowd seemed to enjoy the tournament. A carnival atmosphere prevailed and some of the better known performers, including Jim "Mr. Magoo" Backus, Forrest Tucker, comedian Gary Morton and the Rowan and Martin comedy team delighted the crowd with quips all during their round of golf.

Many of the Hollywood personalities entertained at Saturday night's celebrity banquet attended by 360 persons at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant in San Rafael. Awards ceremonies and buffet dinner followed the tournament at Peacock Gap last night before the Southern California visitors returned to their homes by chartered plane.

AWARD WINNERS

Amateur Low Gross — Ron Cerrudo, 68; Steve Stimac, 69; Dr. Marv Gilberg, 72.

Dodger Is Fined For Sassing Boss

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Manager Walter Alston of the Los Angeles Dodgers fined third baseman John Kennedy $50 after a brief flare-up during yesterday's game.

Kennedy, hitting .170, complained loudly in the dugout after he was taken out for a pinch-hitter in the seventh inning with men on second and third, no one out and the Dodgers ahead 3-0.

Giants Now 20-1 Picks

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — It's still the San Francisco Giants versus the Minnesota Twins in the World Series, according to Franklin Institute's baseball-oriented computer.

The Giants are a 20-to-1 choice to beat out Los Angeles, while the odds on a Twins' triumph in the American League are so high now the Honewell 1400 stopped computing them.

The computer figures the Giants will end the season with a 95-65 record, followed by Los Angeles with 92-70. Tied for third will be Cincinnati and Pittsburgh at 89-73 and Milwaukee follows in fifth with 88-74.

Neighbors with a use for extra money can count on our buying their hard maple. You see, it takes 10 cords to make enough charcoal to fill just one of the Charcoal Mellowing vats we seep our whiskey through. That's because it's ground up fine and packed tightly 10 feet deep. And the sippin' smoothness it gives Jack Daniel's is well worth all we do to keep a good supply.

L.A.'s Dogged Pursuit; Cincy's Severe Setback

Dodgers Running On Treadmill

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers, like the greyhound, give dogged pursuit.

The Dodgers, behind Claude Osteen and Ron Perranoski, recorded their second straight shutout yesterday, blanking the St. Louis Cardinals, 5-0. The win was the Dodgers' seventh in 10 games.

But the Giants beat Milwaukee again for their 16th victory in 17 outings, staying 3½ lengths in front of second-place Los Angeles in the National League race.

The Dodgers are idle today before opening a two-game series in Milwaukee tomorrow night. After Wednesday night's game in Milwaukee, Los Angeles will return home for a 10-game stand, ending the season.

Don Drysdale will be ready to hurl for L.A. tomorrow with Sandy Koufax going Wednesday and Osteen Thursday.

The Giants open a three-game set in third-place Cincinnati tonight. After Cincinnati, San Francisco likewise returns home for a 10-game stand, ending the season.

Osteen (15-14) pitched eight innings of runless ball, but Dodger relief star Perranoski was called after Curt Flood and Dick Groat singled to lead off the ninth.

Perranoski swiftly set down the side in order, registering his 12th save of the season.

It marked the second straight eight - inning shutout performance for Osteen, the winner in both contests. Last Thursday Koufax pitched the ninth to preserve the victory over the Chicago Cubs.

With Koufax's 1-0 shutout over the Cardinals Saturday, the Dodgers blanked their hosts for the last 19 innings in sweeping the three-game set.

Jim Lefebvre's 10th homer of the season in the second inning started the Dodger scoring.

Two runs crossed in the sixth off Cardinal starter and loser Bob Gibson (18-11). After Willie Davis and Ron Fairly singled, Davis scored on a wild pitch and Fairly scored on Wes Parker's single.

Distaffs Race At Bay Meadows

SAN MATEO (AP)—The Hillsborough Handicap next Saturday over 1 1-16 miles will settle the distaff championship and highlight the week at Bay Meadows.

Poona Queen, Hi Rated and My Boudoir are the leading entries so far for the $15,000 stakes event.

Racing secretary Lou Eilken showed he knows how to handicap last Saturday. The Peninsula Handicap, worth $10,675, ended with Calgary Brook finishing a neck ahead of favored Nearco Blue, a neck in front of Poona Khan.

The 6-year-old Calgary Brook won his first stakes race with a strong stretch finish in the six-furlong event run in 1:09 2-5. Jockey Alvaro Pineda earned the winner's backers $11.60, $5.80 and $3.60.

Nearco Blue returned $3.80 and $2.80. Poona Khan paid $3.00.

Reds To Go All-Out For Sweep Over S.F.

Combined AP and UPI

CINCINNATI -Cincinnati's yesterday as the Reds split a doubleheader with Houston, but Manager Dick Sisler is not yet ready to concede anything to the San Francisco Giants.

"I know we're in a tough spot," he said, "but dont forget we have seven games left to play with the Giants. All we have to do is beat 'em."

The third-place Reds get a crack at the National League leaders tonight as the Giants invade Crosley Field for the first of a crucial three-game series.

"We must win all three of the games here," Sisler said. "We got our best pitchers ready to go, but we have very little depth left".

Jim Maloney, seeking his 20th victory, is slated to oppose the Giants' Bob Bolin, 11-5, in tonight's game.

The Giants so far have had little trouble with the Reds. They've won eight games while losing only three to Cincinnati. The clubs conclude the season in a four-game series at San Francisco.

Cincinnati dropped 4½ games off the pace yesterday. Houston won the first game 8-6 on Jim Gentile's three - run, pinch - hit homer in the eighth. The Reds took the nightcap 4-3 on a seventh inning leadoff homer by Tommy Harper.

Sisler announced afterwards he has pared his pitching staff down to six for the Reds' remaining 12 games.

"We are going to have to go with Jim Maloney, Sammy Ellis, Jim O'Toole and Joe Nuxhall as starters with Billy McCool and Ted Davidson for the relief work," he said.

"It's just going to be up to those pitchers," he continued. "And whenever I have to, I will shove a starting pitcher in to do relief work. I cannot go beyond McCool and Davidson in the bullpen."

Sisler said he decided to use only six hurlers after Joey Jay and Roger Craig "failed" in the opener against Houston. Jay, who started, gave up four runs and Craig, sent in as a reliever in the eighth, served up the home run ball to Gentile.

"I brought Craig in because I wanted someone who could throw a sinker ball in the hopes of getting a double play," Sisler said. "He just couldn't get his sinker over and Gentile stepped into a slider and knocked it out of the park."

Giants Edge Braves Face Cincy Tonight

nally, about 15 feet from the bag, the ball almost stopped. Torre lunged at it, obviously believing the ball was foul.

"Fair ball," called umpire Billy Williams. That stunned Torre, who slammed down the ball and charged at Williams.

Lanier crossed the plate as the ball rolled toward shortstop.

"I was going all the way anyway," said Lanier. "No one was covering home plate. Gene Oliver (the catcher) was between first and home halfway down the line."

Torre accepted full blame. "I pulled a bush play," said the man who had driven in both Braves' runs with a home run and a double. But, Torre insisted the ball was foul and that Williams was out of position to rule otherwise.

"As soon as he called that ball fair, I exploded," said Torre after Williams threw him out of the game. "I lost all connection with earth."

Manager Herman Franks, whose Giants have now won 16 of their last 17 games, was bubbling. "I was as surprised as anyone to see Lanier score," said Franks.

"In fact, I was tickled to death to see him reach third. Then I looked out at the argument, then back at third and I said to myself, 'Where is he going now?"

Then the Giants added another run in the inning on a single, a walk and a sacrifice fly by Willie McCovey. This gave the league leaders their 16th win in their last 17 games.

Juan Marichal hurled the last two innings to preserve the win for southpaw Bill Henry (4-2), the third Giant pitcher to be used.

Tony Cloninger went the distance for Milwaukee, picking up his 10th defeat against 22 wins.

Willie Mays socked his 49th home run of the season in the first inning and Jim Hart's homer gave the Giants a 2-0 margin in the second. Torre homered in the fourth and back to back doubles by Henry Aaron and Torre accounted for the other Braves run in the sixth.

Nicklaus Tops $ Mark; Yearns 'Greatest' Label

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — What's next for Jack Nicklaus, now that he has won more money in a single golf season than any other man?

Fewer tournaments a year, for one thing. And he would like, someday, to be recognized as a great golfer, maybe the best this country has produced.

These reflections by Nicklaus came minutes after he won $6,600 with rounds of 69-68-68-68—273 in capturing the Portland Open Championship yesterday. That boosted his season's earnings to $134,045. The previous high was Arnold Palmer's $128,230 in 1963.

Nicklaus was 15 under par for his four rounds on the par 35-37—72 Portland Golf Club course. It was his second straight victory at Portland, and his fifth championship this year.

Dave Marr, who started the day two strokes behind Nicklaus, wound up three strokes behind at 276. Next came Billy Maxwell at 278, South African Bob Verwey at 279, and Bill Casper, of Peacock Gap, at 290.

In four years, the 25-year-old Nicklaus has won $409,298 on the golf course. The only two bigger money winners are Palmer, with $643,982, and Casper, with $446,5 89, and both of them have been on the pro tour 1 1years.

"Everyone wants to be recognized," said Nicklaus, reflecting on the question of what's next. "Arnie and all of us, when finished, want to be known as a great player, maybe the best there was. The more wins we get, the greater chance there is for that.

"All I can say for the imediate future is that I'm going steelhead fishing tomorrow, and I'll be in the Seattle Open next week.

"I can say this, too: I'm going to cut down on the number of tournaments I play. I'll never play 25 again. Maybe I'll play 15 or 20 a year. Also, I want to concentrate next year on the British Open, which I have never won."

Final Rites For Boxer Stevenson

BOSTON (AP)—Services will be held at St. Joseph's Church in the Roxbury section tomorrow morning for Willie Pineapple Stevenson, 29 - year - old welterweight boxer who died at City Hospital Saturday.

Stevenson, a pro fighter since 1954, died of a brain injury suffered in losing on a sixth round technical knockout in a scheduled 10-round bout with Roscoe Gregory of Brooklyn, N.Y., Sept. 11. He underwent surgery several hours after the fight.

Novato, Tam Win As Marin League Shows Power

Hornets Score 20-0 Victory; Otis Stars

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Grid teams from the so-called "powerful" Diablo Valley Athletic League found Marin County football too much for them this past weekend.

College Park High School was the third Diablo Valley team to be chased back to the East Bay over the weekend. The Falcons were drubbed by the Novato Hornets, 20-0.

That Novato triumph came Saturday before 1,500 sun-baked fans on the Hornets' home field. The day before, Redwood beat Mount Diablo 6-0 and Terra Linda whipped Clayton Valley 19-0, both visiting teams from the DVAL. That completed the weekend with Marin Athletic League teams 45, Diablo Valley teams zero.

Needless to say, Marin County prep football is on the upswing and should provide some of the better games in the Bay Area.

Saturday the running of tailback Dick Otis and halfback Frank Perachiotti, combined with a tough defense, was too much for the College Park boys to handle. Otis, top runner in the Marin Athletic League last year as a junior, rolled up 131 yards (6.9 average) and Perachiotti added 50 more.

NOVATO SCORES

Perachiotti scored the first two Novato touchdowns, the first one on a four-yard spurt through right tackle in the first quarter, and the second one in the second quarter from the one-foot line. It was Otis' turn to score in the final period, his tally coming on a pretty 17-yard run around his left end. When Otis broke in the open on his TD gallop there were only two men between him and the end zone. He faked the first man out with a quick twist and the second defender was knocked on his back by a block from end Ev Fritz.

Bill Coots, with Perachiotti holding, kicked two of three extra point attempts.

The game was truly an opener for both teams, with their mistakes quite obvious. The officials were kept busy, calling 137 yards of penalties against College Park and 70 against Novato.

WHAT A BULL!—Novato tailback Dick Otis, his helmet pulled off by one of the College Park tacklers, bulls his way forward in the arms of three other College Park Falcons during their opening game of the season Saturday in Novato. The Hornets, led by the running of Otis, blanked College Park 20-0.

Fowler Leads Tamites To Upset Over Riordan

Mike Fowler of the Tamalpais Indians has served notice to the other teams in the Marin Athletic League and they better take heed.

This boy can run and the Riordan Crusaders are still mumbling to themselves about it. He rambled for 168 years and two touchdowns Saturday to lead the Injuns to a surprise 14-12 triumph over Riordan under sunny skies at Kentfield.

Fowler, a sophomore fullback, hit his first touchdown from seven yards out in the second quarter to put Tam back in the game. Riordan had scored two earlier touchdowns to take a 12-0 lead. On the first series of plays, Riordan's fullback Dennis DiRicco scampered 17 yars for a touchdown and then in in the second quarter Riordan scored on a 22-yard pass play from quarterback Tom Maxwell. Both PAT attempts were blocked.

Tam came back with a drive of its own later in the second quarter with Fowler galloping for the 17-yard TD. While the Indians defense held, Fowler came back midway in the third quarter on a sweep around right end good for 44 yards and the go-ahead TD. Both extra points were scored on runs by Kirk Sparks.

GOLDEN CHANCE

Late in the final quarter, the visiting Crusaders blew a golden opportunity to win the game. Tam defensive back Scott Harrison fumbled a punt by Riordan's Bob Esmarch and the Crusaders recovered on the Tam 15.

Three plays carried to the Tam 6 and Riordan had a fourth down and one yard to go for a first down. On the fourth down play, Maxwell fumbled the handoff from center and the Indians recovered. The final gun sounded as Tam ate up the remaining time on the clock.

It was a brilliant debut for Willie Hector as a coach. Just out of the wars of pro ball (with the Los Angeles Rams and Denver Broncos), Hector had never coached in a game prior to Saturday.

Injuns Disappoint Ralston In Opener

STANFORD (AP)— Quarterback Roger Staubach has left Navy but Stanford head football coach John Ralston says his Indians better wake up unless they want to get swamped by the Midshipmen.

"Believe me, we have a lot of hard work to put in before we're ready for Navy next Saturday," said Ralston last Saturday after Stanford rolled 26-6 over an outmanned San Jose State.

Instead, Dale Rubin carried a punt back 62 yards for one Dave Lewis hit speedy back Bob Blunt with a 71-yard touchdown pass on a broken play.

"I have mixed feelings about our play," said Ralston. "When we were good, we were very good, but when we were bad we were terrible. We just weren't consistent."

San Jose State coach Harry Anderson, whose Spartans go on the road next Saturday against Idaho, gave Lewis more credit than Ralston.

"That Lewis is a good all-around football player," the rookie coach said. "With him in the lineup, Stanford could beat anybody. He can run, pass and kick and we were especially concerned when he ran the option."

Ralston said, "Dave can and will do better in future games."

Top Stanford running back Ray Handley scored the first Indian touchdown on a four-yard run after a 50-yard march. But he carried the ball only six times for 26 yards and Ralston implied that Lewis didn't give Handley enough opportunities.

"Ray should be carrying the ball at least 14 times a game," said Ralston. "And I assure you, he'll be doing just that from here on in."

A crowd of 31,031 watched the Indians jump to a 19-0 lead before San Jose's Charlie Harraway plunged over from the one-yard line in the second quarter for the Spartan's only score.

Reserve quarterback Terry De Sylvia helped Ralston forget the loss of kicker Braden Beck through graduation by booting field goals of 13 and 25 yards besides two extra points.

"I don't really think we were really up for this one," said Lewis, a full-blooded Indian. "we will be much sharper and up for Navy (14-6 losers to Syracuse)—you can bet."

San Rafael Drivers Win Drag Honors

Two San Rafael drivers won honors Saturday at the Vaca Valley Drag Strip.

Bill English won seventh eliminator honors in an E-Stock Mustang, turning 90 miles per hour in 15.08 seconds, and Bob McEachern won the second round trophy in G-Stock Automatic with his 1965 Dodge, turning 90 mph in 15.98 seconds.

MICHIGAN NEXT; TOUGHER THAN IRISH?

Cal Bears Step Out Of Frying Pan Into The Fire

BERKELEY (AP) — California's Bears can bounce back, says Coach Ray Willsey, but he realizes full well next Saturday's foe could be just as tough, or even tougher, than the club that whacked his charges 48-6 in the opener.

After losing to Notre Dame in a game where one span of less than five minutes told most of the story, the Bears travel to Ann Arbor this week to meet a Michigan team which topped North Carolina 31-24 in its opener.

After Notre Dame grabbed a 3-0 lead early, the Irish defenses wrecked California's game plan before the contest had gone 20 minutes.

Quarterback Bill Zloch, the successor to Heisman Trophy winner John Huarte, scored from the three on the fourth play after Nick Rassas intercepted a Jim Hunt pass at the Cal 48 and returned to the 12.

Then defensive end Al Page recovered a Ron Minamide fumble at the Cal 37 and the Irish struck for another touchdown with fullback Larry Conjar going over from the one.

Then safetyman Rassas returned a punt 65 yards and Notre Dam led 22-0, and California, which had planned on a conservative ground game, had to turn to aerial maneuvers seeking unsuccessfully to catch up.

"We have no excuses for the fiasco we performed on the field," Willsey declared. "We played a fine football team but they are not that good. We just played that bad."

Notre Dame halfback Nick Eddy, from nearby Tracy, rushed for 99 yards and caught a 24-yard touchdown pass from Zloch to win honors as the game's top back. Guard Dick Arrington was voted the outstanding lineman.

About the only factor on the plus side for the Bears who face the Rose Bowl champs in game No. 2 was that they incurred no injuries in the opener.

San Diego Too Much —Raiders

OAKLAND (AP) — Coach Al Davis, whose Oakland Raiders drew early rating as the team to give San Diego stiff competition for the Western Division title in the American Football League, says the Chargers have too much this season for all opponents.

"San Diego will win consistently," Davis said yesterday after the Chargers stopped Oakland 17-6. "They simply have too much personnel."

The Chargers played without All-AFL fullback Keith Lincoln, who stayed home with a pulled thigh muscle. Rookie Gene Foster, the Chargers' No. 10 draft choice from Arizona State, took Lincoln's place and finished the day's top rusher with 104 yards in 21 carries for nearly five yards an attempt.

Foster, who has yet to fumble after five pre-season games and the Chargers' two regular season contests, teamed with halfback Paul Lowe as San Diego played a control game that kept the ball out of Oakland hands.

Oakland also played without a key man. But they were hurt by the loss.

Quarterback Cotton Davidson sat out the Raiders' second game with an injured throwing arm. His replacements, Tom Flores and Dick Wood, failed to get the Raiders a single touchdown.

Davidson previously had given the hard - charging San Diego front four fits by scrambling out of trouble. The Chargers got to Flores and knocked him groggy midway in the third quarter. The immobile Wood was put under extreme pressure and finally dropped twice in crucial situations.

Wood was forced to hurry a pass with about seven minutes left in the game and San Diego on top 10-6. It landed in the hands of Ken Graham who ran it back 25 yards to the Oakland 18 ard line.

After two running plays and a penalty, John Hadle hit Lance Alworth on a 25-yard touchdown pass with 4:10 remaining.

The Chargers, who host Kansas City next Sunday, took the opening kickoff and then went 72 yards in 10 plays for the first touchdown with Paul Lowe running the final five yards.

The Raiders made it 7-3 on a 48-yard second-quarter field goal by Gene Mingo. Herb Travenio countered for a 29-yard field goal and Mingo came back with a 35-yarder that closed the first half and Oakland scoring.

The Raiders failed to cross the 50-yard line in the second half but managed to hold San Diego scoreless in the third quarter. The Raiders, now 1-1, drew an all-time home high of 21,406 fans and hope to do as well next Sunday at Frank Youell Field with Houston.

CARDS UPSET; BROWNS, PACKERS, COLTS WIN

Cleveland, Baltimore and Green Bay, three powerhouses in the National Football League, opened their seasons successfully yesterday but St. Louis suffered a major upset.

The defending champion Browns stopped darkhorse Washington 17-7. Baltimore, Western Division champions last year, set back Minnesota's aspirations 35-16 and Green Bay walloped Pittsburgh 41-9 after tailing at the half.

In other NFL openers, Dallas routed New York 31-2, Detroit blanked Los Angeles 20-0 and San Francisco crushed Chicago 52-24.

In the American League, Houston whacked Boston 31-10, Buffalo ripped Denver 30-15 and San Diego stopped Oakland 17-6. Saturday night it was Kansas City 14, New York 10.

EAGLE VICTORY

Brown, who talked Eagle Coach Joe Kuharich out of moving him to flanker during the exhibition season, led the Eagles over St. Louis. He scored two touchdowns and gained 129 yards catching seven passes. He also ran for 50 more.

BROWNS TOUGH

Cleveland's defense stifled Washington and had the Redskins shut out until the final two minutes of play. Frank Ryan passed for both Brown touchdowns, hitting Walter Roberts with an 80-yarder and Gary Collins for 35.

UNITAS RALLIES

The Vikings intercepted two of Johnny Unitas' first four passes but the Baltimore ace, given time to recoup by the Colts' stingy defense, rallied the Western Division champs past Minnesota.

Minnesota jumped off to a 10-0 lead but Unitas came back to pitch two TD passes and finished with 14 for 22 and 224 yards through the air.

PACKERS STORM

Three Mike Clark field goals had built a 9-7 Pittsburgh lead at halftime against Green Bay but the Packers stormed back in the second half, turning every Steeler mistake into a score. The Packer secondary intercepted three passes and recovered a fumble and Bart Starr hurled two scoring passes.

LIONS ROAR

Detroit protected a 3-0 lead through three periods against Los Angeles before breaking the game open with 17 points in the final quarter. Milt Plum threw two scoring passes and Wayne Walker booted a pair of field goals.

GIANTS STIFLED

Don Meredith directed the Cowboy offense to four touchdowns and the Dallas defense completely stifled New York's attack. Dallas rookie Bob Hayes, Olympic 100-meter champion, sprinted 45 yards with a swing pass from Meredith for the Cowboys' final TD

In the AFL, George Blanda tossed three touchdown passes leading Houston to its second straight victory and handing Boston its second straight setback. Over-all the Oiler veteran completed 16 of 30 attempts for 298 yards.

Buffalo intercepted five Denver passes and recovered three fumbles and Jack Kemp completed 20 of 49 passes for 280 yards. It was the first meeting between the two teams since they swapped fullbacks — Billy Joe moving to Buffalo and Cookie Gilchrist to Denver. Joe gained 48 yards on 14 carries and Gilchrist 26 on 12 attempts.

Crow Provided Turning Point In Unbelievable 49er Victory

RANDOL

For 15 long, long minutes it looked like the same old San Francisco 49ers, the some old heartbreak, and the usual long, long season. And then the dam broke, and when the waters had receded the 49ers had hung it on the ex-Monsters of the Midway from Chicago, 52 to 24.

A San Francisco score like that sounds like a typographical error, but there were no mistakes made during the second and third quarters as the 49ers scored 45 of their points. Call me bloodthirsty if you will, but I loved every minute of it.

During that horrible first quarter the Niners netted 27 yards and never got past their own 37 yard line. Quarterback John Brodie was off target, heads were shaking, and the press box experts were saying "Here we go again."

THE SECOND quarter was a different story, the 49ers racking up 228 yards running and passing for three touchdowns and a field goal. The song of the experts changed to "Here we go." I can't claim expert status, but I joined in the chorus.

In that nightmarish first quarter Brodie threw five times completing two for a six yard gain and a one yard loss. Two other times John ate the ball, and the last time he couldn't keep it down as he fumbled. In the next two quarters, Brodie completed 12 of 15 passes and directed his team like a master.

THE REAL turning point of the game was the entry of John David Crow in the backfield. Teamed with rookie powerhouse Ken Willard, the 49ers really busted it open. Later on, everyone got into the act and it hardly mattered who carried or caught the ball.

How good are the 49ers? Well, how long has it been since a San Francisco team has scored 24 points in one quarter or 45 in two? How long since two substitute backs can do as great a job as the starters? How long since you saw four blockers in front of a 49er ball carrier?

IF YOU can forget the first quarter, they are contenders. Let's call that part of the game the fifth quarter of last week's Ram game and go from there. Momentum is important in pro football, and the Niners should maintain their drive against Pittsburgh next week. After that, we'll know.

If you missed the season opener, put down the TV Highlights show as required watching. You won't believe what you see but the illusion is nice.

ARTIST AT WORK—David Brooks works at a piece of metal sculpture resembling a totem pole in the studio of his floating home, the New Moon. The windows form a pattern, Brooks believes. He plans to rig up a basket chair to carry him to the watch tower on top.

FREE SPIRIT

Sausalito Sculptor Building His Houseboat With Ideas

By BRUCE COLEMAN

'What is it?" is the most frequent question asked David Brooks, Sausalito free spirit, about his "Jules Verne-looking" vessel anchored in Richardson Bay off gate five.

It is the New Moon, somewhat wierd floating home of Brooks and his wife, Barbara, two cats and four pots of geraniums.

Brooks, a soft-spoken sculptor of 25, is completing work on the ship, the hull of which is an old 36-foot-long navy landing craft.

It's the superstructure, however, which gives passers-by pause.

Built "like a pyramid" and studded with cast-off, odd-shaped windows, some in Mondrian pattern, it looks as if it had sailed in from an outer world.

The Brookses moved aboard the boat near Christmas last year, first living in a tent in the bow as Brooks began building the superstructure.

"There was a lot of wind and rain," said the sculptor.

Brooks has done all of the work on the boat, towing materials out into the stream behind his small row boat. The New Moon, so called because, to Brooks, it means "a new beginning," now has a dining room, living room-studio and bedroom-loft.

Design for the ship "just grew," said the sculptor. He made a model first, however. He used airplane construction methods he had learned while making models as a boy. The superstructure, he said, has its strength in stress of plywood.

Brooks and his wife erected the first set of beams, weighing 200-300 pounds. "Then people came out," Brooks explained, "just like in the old days and we put the rest up in a beam-raising party.

"Almost every piece of wood is at an angle."

The watch tower on top is to be peaked and have a glass dome. Brooks plans a basket chair on a rope in the 20-foot-high living room to pull himself up by pulley "for the best view of all."

"I have tried to work out compositions with the windows," the sculptor said, "in the loft a portion of the roof opens so sleepers can watch the stars.

"Every piece of wood that went in is strictly sculpture. It's taken me a long time because of that. Sometimes I put in a piece of wood and then had to row out to see how it looked with the rest of the boat." He considers sculpture a basic communication among people.

"I'm starting to do some sculpture for architects," he related. "I'm especially interested in modern building, sculpture which would complement the building." He said he is currently meeting with architects seeking a commission.

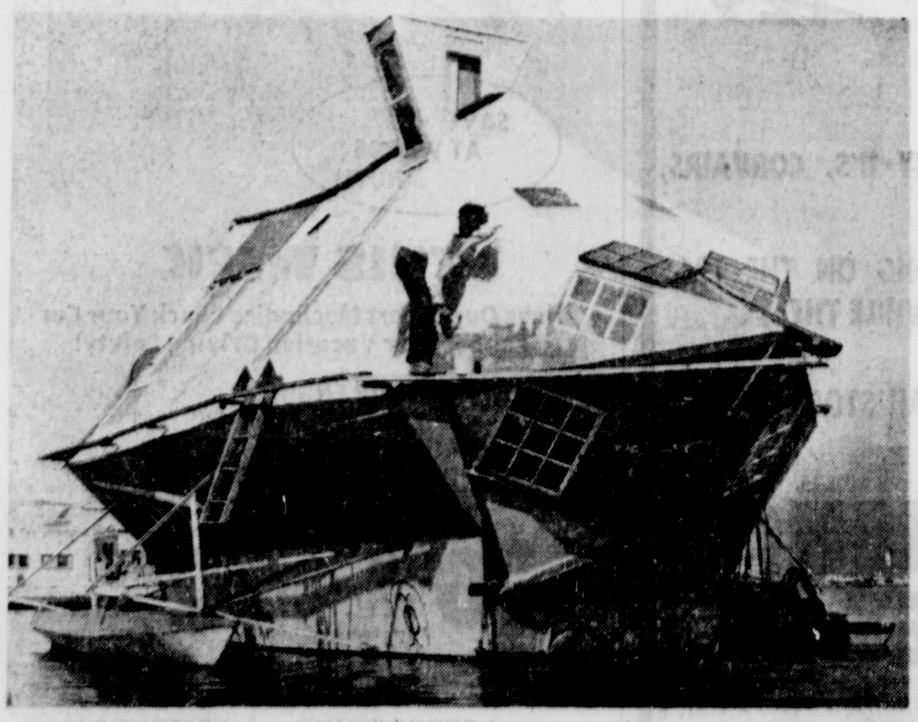
"Something that amuses me," commented Mrs. Brooks, "is the acceptance we're getting now compared to opposition before. When we first had the idea we an into opposition from friends and family. Everyone said it couldn't be built, we'd never finish it, we were insane to start. Why didn't we live like other people, starting off with an apartment? Now that it's finished, everyone comes out and admires it."

Brooks may install a motor, he said, and plans a water system and a metal sculptured fireplace. He keeps a fishing pole at one window, catches perch. He said he and his wife also plan to raise tomatoes.

The ship has a catwalk on the outside for construction and painting and, according to Brooks, "the cats use it too."

Brooks hopes to complete his craft by November and then plans to build a trimaran in which he and his wife will sail around the world.

"I'm sort of a pioneer type, I think," said Brooks.



WHAT IS IT?—It's the New Moon, home of sculptor David Brooks and his wife on Richardson Bay. Brooks applies a coat of paint to the portion that is his studio. He built the odd superstructure himself, regarding it as a sculpture.

Reapportionment Session Begins

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Brown told California's second special legislative session of the year today that it would be "a serious dereliction" to deadlock again on reapportionment.

He urged lawmakers to put aside "personal and partisan interests" as they opened a landmark meeting under State Supreme Court order to redistrict the Senate and Assembly by Dec. 9.

Failure to agree, he reminded legislators, would mean the court's alternative plan would become law, with all of its "serious shortcomings for the parties, the people and the government."

But legislative leaders—mindful of their failure to produce a Senate redistricting plan in the regular session—were divided on the possibility of agreement.

Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Los Angeles, said he has "grave doubts." Senate President Pro Tem Hugh Burns, D-Fresno, said he thinks his house can approve new Senate districts.

Brown, in a letter to legislators, warned "there will be tough hard decisions to make" in complying with the State Supreme Court order to realign Senate and Assembly districts on a population basis.

But failure, he said, would mean use of the court plan requiring 17 senators and 28 assemblymen to run at large without specific districts.

"A voter deserves to know precisely who represents him in each house," said Brown. "The confusion of at-large districts with multiple candidates will only render our legislature less responsible and less responsive. The high cost of campaigning will only further compound an already serious problem."

"I think it would be a serious dereliction to fail to provide an acceptable alternative to the court proposal . . . " he said.

Brown also urged approval of the other two items he placed before the special session—a bill making California eligible for part of the new federal medicare funds and ratification of the constitutional amendment dealing with Presidential disability.

Other items will be added, he said, "if a case can be made for immediate attention . . . "

Planners Grant Mining Permit For Mercury

The Marin County Planning Commission today granted a use permit and variance to Buttes Gas and Oil Co. for mining of cinnabar (mercury ore) on the Gambonini ranch, seven miles east of Marshall.

There was one protest, that of Mrs. Grace Wellman of Kentfield who said the strip minning devastated the land and posed a real threat of silting of downstream areas.

Planning Commission Chairman Felix M. Warburg agreed that silting was the real problem, but he and other commissioners agreed the company would be operating under enough state control to keep it from becoming serious.

The commission voted 6-0, with Hugh Dougherty absent, to approve the permit with review in five years.

Philip R. Bradley, manager of the operation, told the commission that the strip mining operation has already covered three to five acres. The mine has been operated off and on since 1945. Buttes was assigned the lease last May.

Homer Sisk To Leave Fairfax Post

Homer L. Sisk will retire next year as superintendent of Fairfax School District after an association with Fairfax schools dating back to 1938.

The retirement takes effect June 30 at the end of the present school year.

Sisk, 60, was appointed from 21 applicants to the job of superintendent in July 1960 on dissolution of the Fairfax-San Anselmo-Kentfield school federation.

He came to the administrative job from Manor School where he was principal for more than 20 years. Previously he taught for two years at Lompoc in Santa Barbara County and at Seal Beach in Orange County.

He was born in Chico and received his bachelor's degree from Chico State College. He lives with his wife, Wilma, at 220 Van Winkle Drive, Sleepy Hollow and has a son, William, resident at Newport West.

Plans for selection of his successor will be discussed at tomorrow's meeting of the district trustees in Manor School at 7:45 p.m.

Bar Meet Opens Today

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Lawyers, judges and others connected with the legal profession opened the 38th annual meeting of the State Bar today.

Creek Work Must Pass New Agency

A second official body has stepped in to cast its shadow across the proposed $150,000 dredging of Gallinas Creek.

The San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission, created by the McAteer-Petris Act, was brought into official existence Friday.

Among other things, the commission is directed to "prepare a comprehensive and enforceable plan for the conservation of the water of San Francisco Bay and the development of its shoreline."

Pending completion of the study and planning period, persons or agencies, such as the Marin County Public Works Department, must secure permits from the commission to place fill in the bay or to extract submerged materials.

The county department has, since July 28, had a request for such a permit from the Army Corps of Engineers to dredge a 2.5-mile stretch of the south fork of Gallinas Creek from San Pablo Bay to the county fairgrounds.

Alf Ekeland, chief of the Corps' permit section, said that it had received no protests to the proposed project but that "it may be that we will not issue such a permit until the new state commission acts."

The new conservation commission will hold its first meeting Sept. 23 at 2 p.m. in Room 1194 of the State Building, 455 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco.

Volunteer Leaving For Peace Corps

Lee G. Woodward, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Woodward of 144 Carlotta Circle, Mill Valley, will arrive in Peru Thursday to begin two years of community development work in Lima and several other large cities as a Peace Corps volunteer.

Miss Woodward studied Spanish for 10 weeks this summer in preparation for her work. She also worked in Spanish-speaking neighborhoods of Chicago practicing her community development skills.

In Peru she will aid local citizens in developing marketing and handicraft cooperatives. She will be one of 10,000 Peace Corps volunteers working in Asia, Africa and Latin America. There are now 500 in Peru.

TV Stolen

A television set valued at $110 was reported stolen from the home of Barbara L. De Brunce of 45 Rodeo Avenue, Sausalito, while Miss De Brunce was out of her home Friday between 7:45 a.m. and 5:50 p.m., police said today. Entry may have been through an unlocked front door.

CHICAGO (AP) — The sudden death of Marshall Field, 49, publisher and philanthropist, continued to evoke expressions of sorrow today as the family prepared for tomorrow's funeral.

Field

The publisher and editor of the Chicago Sun-Times and the Chicago Daily News, died in his sleep Saturday evening of a heart attack at his Chicago home.

The funeral will be at 3 p.m. tomorrow.

Kent Leaves Demo Post

Roger Kent of Kent Woodlands bowed out as chairman of the State Democratic Central Committee Saturday during an executive committee meeting in San Francisco.

However, another man from Kent Woodlands was voted into state office. He is Robert Setrakian, who was the unanimous choice for state treasurer.

Setrakian succeeded Robert Coate of Walnut Creek, who was elevated to state chairman.

Kent resigned the chairmanship to head the party's Northern California coordinating committee for re-election of Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

After the meeting, Kent was given a surprise party at his Kent Woodlands home by members of the executive committee. About 100 party leaders gathered to honor Kent and present him with a gold loving cup.

Tiburon Ball, Buffet Supper Set Saturday

The Tiburon fireman's ball will begin at 9 p.m. Saturday at the Corinthian Yacht Club.

All residents of Tiburon have received bids to the annual event. Robert Wallermann, ball chairman, is also reservations chairman. His committee includes the following firemen: John Grbac, Ed Parnell, Thomas Murphy and Charles Pruett, Fire Chief Frank Buscher and William Sullivan, president of the social organization for the volunteer members of the Tiburon Fire Dept., are assisting with plans.

A band will play for the dancing and a midnight buffet supper will be served.

Proceeds from the affair permit the firemen to purchase special equipment not included in the city's budget, to contribute to the firemen's health and welfare fund, and to sponsor a little league baseball team.

Prison Vocations Make Old Rock Pile Obsolete

Open houses at San Quentin Prison, such as last week's Vocational Trades Fair, immediately dispel any old fashioned notions about the "life of futility" in prison.

The men are not methodically splitting rocks or idly marking time. They are engaged in useful production, acquiring skills and looking to the future with hope.

We again commend the prison staff; Lester Ecke, supervisor of vocational instruction; the Inmate Vocational Trades Council, and inmates on their successful presentation of rehabilitation in action.

We only regret that more of us did not take advantage of the second annual Trades Fair open house.

The show had its eye catchers—the colorful landscaping and gardens, the pastry and coffee stand with carvings made from blocks of ice, and a continuous program of music and entertainment on the Portal Plaza.

But the bulk of the show, while less spectacular, consisted of inmates with their noses to the grindstone, learning how to make a living.

As the crowds weaved through the various shops, you could see the inmates glow with pride whenever a visitor commented on their workmanship or even asked them for a demonstration.

From a twisted wreckage of a state vehicle, which on the outside would be headed for the junk heap, they recreate an immaculate vehicle polished to the last bolt.

Vocational landscaping trainees have molded little oases of shrubs and flowers among the stone and asphalt of the prison compound.

They are acquiring skills in office machines, plumbing, electrical, sheet metal, carpentry, tool making, printing and bookbinding, shoe repair, clothing manufacture, meat cutting, and laundering, to mention a few.

Best of all, these are no artificial "make-work" projects. They can see their products put to constructive use, largely within San Quentin itself and sometimes (as in the case of furniture) in other state agencies.

Last month's 11th annual Arts and Crafts show and now the Vocational Trades Fair are samples of how San Quentin is pioneering in the field of vocational rehabilitation.

Sparrows And Wet Feet

A recent damp morning when the dew was on the grass we noticed a group of sparrows and finches standing on our steps and walking on our hose. They were loathe to step in the dew. No wet feet for these dainty birds.

If they spotted a tid-bit they wanted to eat somewhere out on the wet stuff, they would go as near to it as they could by walking on the hose. Then dash for it, seemingly on tiptoe.

It is doubly amusing when we think that these same birds spend the winters here and are exposed to Marin's cold winter rains. Perhaps, however, that may be the reason. Maybe they get enough of that rough stuff during our winter. Can't exactly blame them.

Consider facts like these:

1. Each year some 750,000 students leave elementary school without graduating.

2. The number of jobs open to unskilled and semi-skilled workers has dropped sharply, thereby lessening opportunities for dropouts to earn a living wage.

3. By not developing their mental and technical abilities, dropouts deprive themselves and everyone else. In fact, they often become a burden to society instead of contributors to it.

4. Those with little education are less likely to vote intelligently or play a meaningful role in political life.

You can render a valuable service to God and country if you:

a) encourage potential dropouts to stay in school;

b) persuade those who have dropped out to return;

c) help overcome bad housing and other conditions that contribute to the dropout rate.

"I will instruct you and show you the way you should walk." (Psalm 31:8)

BY HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — The statement of Gov. Edmund G. Brown to the effect that the trend of the quarter system for California's schools "must move down into the lower schools" marks a tremendous stride in the ultimate utilization of the state's school facilities on a year-round basis.

FOR MANY years, the writer of this column has failed to see why an investment of hundreds of milions of dollars in school buildings should be allowed to lie idle for three months of the year. Especially at a time when the population explosion filed all available quarters, and is costing the taxpayers additional millions to furnish new classrooms.

Representatives of the California Teachers Assn. have argued at length as to why a year-round school system "won't work". The bare fact is that teachers don't want a year-round or four quarter system.

This is understandable, for why should any individual want to give up three months of vacation, which can be spent moon-lighting, or world traveling at reduced rates through special teacher tours.

There apears to be no valid reason why teachers should not work on the same basis as other public employees, who labor in the public interest 12 months of the year, with vacations specified by law.

As Governor Brown said: "In most school districts, children still go to school for about six hours a day, five days a week, just as they did a hundred years ago. They still take the summer off, just as they did a hundred years ago, when they were needed to harvest crops during the summers on their parents' farms."

THE SYSTEM, therefore, in the lower school divisions marks no progress in a hundred years as far as the dissemination of more knowledge is concerned. And as the governor said, "there has been a knowledge explosion". He declares, "Our education industry needs retooling."

Governor Brown's statements concerning the four-quarter semester system constitutes the first concrete demand heard from high quarters. It was made at his education conference in Los Angeles, and it is quite possible some progress will be made by this group in the light of Brown's comment that "we have done well, but we can do better."

The educationists can do better by both their students and the taxpayers who support the system with more than 50 per cent of every dollar paid in tax money.

As Brown points out, public colleges and universities have seen the weaknesses of the semester system, and have definite plans to go on a year-round, quarter system calendar.

But the system in the higher echelons of education appears not to be enough to meet the increasing demands of the economy, and of the advances in science, for the forthcoming generation. Perhaps with the trend will start moving into the lower schools.

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

Dr. Paul Dudley said that barring complications, President Dwight D. Eisenhower's prospects for recovery from his heart attack "are reasonably good." He told a news conference that if Eisenhower's progress continued he would be "physically able" to serve a second term.

James S. Goodale quit the San Rafael City Council in a sudden resignation that caught his colleagues and city officials by complete surprise. Goodale, consignee for the Union Oil Co., explained that pressure of business forced him to give up his municipal duties.

Outlaw Handguns? It's Not Right

Editor Independent-Journal:

RE: Article Sept. 14 "Behr Calls For Outlawing Private Citizens' handguns." Sheriff Mountanos also agreed that when the day comes when laws are passed restricting ownership of handguns, "We will really be making progress".

As a U.S. citizen, I would remind these men, that as public servants, they have a duty to uphold the U.S. Constitution, which in Art. II states "A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed." There is nothing mentioned about how long the barrels of the guns must or must not be.

When the county supervisors and the county sheriff, all get their sights aimed against our Constitutional rights, perhaps those citizens who do not already own a gun, should seriously consider purchasing one for their own protection. It may be much later than they think.

Anti-Communism Has No Meaning

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In Vietnam as in most underdeveloped countries anti-communism, as a crusade, has no appeal. The people who are urged to sacrifice their homes and their lives have the experience of being told that any opposition to a military, right wing, theocratic, or colonial government is "Communist." In Viet Nam anti-Communism is synonymous with white overlordship or puppet dictatorship. In the Dominican Republic anti-Communism meant Trujillo-ism. In Cuba, (before Castro) anti-Communism meant maintenance of a corrupt U.S. dominated Batista regime. In Haiti, Papa Duvalier and his goons rule in the name of anti-Communism. Every resistance to existing undemocratic government maintaining itself by force is called Communits.

The label has been misused and overused to such a degree that it is no longer meaningful nor effective. When suffering masses are given no other choice than between right wing military dictatorship or "communism," more and more will desperately choose the latter, in one of its many forms; openly if possible, and covertly if the repression is too severe.

Constitution Covers Ownership Of Arms

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I would like to pose this question—Would Marin County Supervisor P. H. Behr and Sheriff L. P. Mountanous speak out strongly against the Negros right to vote or a Jews right to worship?

I would think not, for these are rights guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States not privileges to be passed on by local officials.

Owner's of hand guns like the first two groups mentioned are all in the minority. But we too are protected by the Second Amendment of the Constitution. I own handguns and it means as much to me as my right to worship or my right to vote; because these are the rights held only by free men in a free society. You pass laws against any of a free man's rights and you no longer have a free society.

The ownership of firearms by the honest law abiding citizens gives him the ability to protect his own life and family if the need should arise. No disrespect to our law inforcement agencies but there is just not enough of them to protect the whole population in the event of foreign aggression or large scale civil disorder.

Idea On Guns Is Astounding

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I was astounded to read in the Sept. 14 edition of the Independent-Journal that Supervisor Peter Behr publicly announced that he was opposed to the possession of handguns by anyone other than law enforcement officers.

The right of citizens to keep and bear arms is a right so fundamental and basic to our society that it is almost impossible to conceive of a public official advocating the restriction thereof. So basic is this right that it is guaranteed by the second amendment (Bill of Rights) to the Constitution of the United States of America which provides as follows:

"A well-regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms, shall not be infringed.

To advocate laws regulating the manner of sale and registration of handguns is one thing, but to advocate limiting possession thereof to peace officers is a good long step toward a total police state.

Schools, Parents And Plain Justice

Editor, Independent-Journal:

It sure warms the cockles of my heart to know that the children of Marin County can be assured of attending a school near their parents' home . . . as long as they are lucky enough to have the right parents.

But perhaps it would be even more heart-warming, if less realistic, to expect to find one law for all of us.

Nuclear Weapons Curb Possible With Help Of Smaller Nations

GENEVA — The least discussed conference to stop the spread of nuclear weapons has the best prospect of doing it.

THE TRUTH IS that the non-nuclear nations have it within their power to halt proliferation in its tracks right now all by themselves—totally and permanently.

They don't have to wait for the Soviet Union to quit haggling over NATO. They don't have to wait for the U. S. and Britain to dot the i's on their draft treaty. They don't have to wait for de Gaulle to stop being de Gaulle. They don't have to wait for anything. They can act conclusively on their own initiative.

Here are the essential facts:

1.—An agreement by the nuclear powers not to spread nuclear weapons already exists de facto. None has any intention whatsoever of putting into the hands of any others the power to start a nuclear holocaust.

2.—An agreement by the non-nuclear nations not to accept or produce nuclear weapons would make it complete.

These are the two factors which make it wholly possible for the non-nuclear countries to make the spread of nuclear weapons impossible. All they have to do is to agree not to receive and not to build the bomb.

This way the peril of proliferation will disappear.

This way the neutral and unaligned nations can show they are willing to do something besides wring their hands and blame the big powers for not taking their advice.

THIS IDEA has already been planted in the minds of the disarmament delegates by Armentore Fafani, Italian foreign minister, who has urged the non-nuclear nations to get ready to take this very initiative if the big powers cannot agree on a formal treaty.

"In that way," he said, "we would give a certain respite to the anxiety about nuclear dissemination and in addition would create an element of pressure and persuasion on the nuclear countries to stimulate them in the conclusion of a general agreement, thus hastening the prospect of nuclear disarmament. Thus, a message of goodwill and peace could be given to the world, a message to which no one—it is to be hoped—could remain insensible."

Fanfani is not suggesting that an inclusive treaty, in which the nuclear powers would agree never to turn the bomb over to other countries and the non-nuclear nations would agree neither to accept one nor to try to make the bomb, wouldn't be better. It would.

BUT WHAT he is saying is that a useful non-proliferation freeze is quite attainable. A commitment for the non-acceptance of nuclear weapons would be equal to a commitment for the non-spread of nuclear weapons by the nuclear powers—and would have the same effect.

If the nuclear powers were conspiring to spread nuclear weapons, that might make a non-acceptance agreement a doubtful reed. But they aren't. The U.S., Russia, Britain, France, and China show no interest in helping others get into the club.

Mansfield, Unions Are Really At Odds

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

But George Meany and Walter Reuther, AFL-CIO president and vice president, are demanding the House-passed legislation annulling state right-to-work laws be acted on this session. They are insisting it be placed before the Senate next week, and the chamber kept in continuous 'round-the-clock session in a head-on fight to break a powerful bipartisan opposition filibuster.

Vice President Hubert Humphrey is strongly supporting this militant strategy. He is exerting his influence in behalf of the labor leaders in the backstage parleying and maneuvering.

IT IS THE UNIONITES' contention the Senate would pass Section 14(b) repealer if brought to a vote. This view is based on their latest poll which they claim shows the following: 54 senators for the bill; 40 against; six still on the fence.

Significantly, this poll also reveals a crucial weakness in the laborites' position.

IT WILL BE EXTREMELY difficult to overcome the threatened potent filibuster.

To shut off "extended debate" by imposing cloture requires a two-thirds vote. With labor's own poll showing 40 senators against the bill, it appear that a two-thirds majority could not be mustered.

This means the large and well-organized filibuster can be overcome only by wearing it out—by keeping the Senate in continuous session indefinitely.

Senator Mansfield is emphatically against such a "trial by brute force."

AS AN ALTERNATE to a rigorous 'round-the-clock regime, Mansfield offered to hold 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. sessions from Monday to Friday, inclusive.

In an unannounced conference with Johnson, the AFL-CIO chiefs asked him to induce Mansfield to agree to keep the Senate in unbroken session in an effort to batter the filibusters into submission.

The president took this request "under advisement." He said he would discuss it with Mansfield and the other congressional leaders at his weekly conference with them tomorrow.

In another backstage compromise move Mansfield made the following proposal to Senate Republican Leader Everett Dirksen of Illinois, who has agreed to lead the filibuster: The administration's repeal bill to be laid over until next year on the understanding the opposition will then allow it to come to a vote.

The opposition now has 27 senators committed to participate in a filibuster, 15 prepared to speak as often and as long as called on. Seven others are ready to help when needed.

Curiously, it went unnoticed, but they voted differently on the amendment Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., succeeded in including in the controversial farm bill setting up a two-priced system for producers in city milk marketing areas.

Sen. Robert Kennedy, N.Y., representing a state with a large dairy industry, voted for this new provision. His younger brother, Sen. Edward Kennedy, Mass., from a state that consumes a lot of milk but produces little, opposed it.

At Last, A Way To Whittle Down Those Haughty Clerks

THERE ARE SOME who enjoy shopping. They know exactly what they want, march into the store without a backward glance and make their purchase entirely unintimidated by the clerks.

Clerks, especially those polished-mannered types in dress shoppes, do not like me. I do have shifty eyes and I do break out in giggles while trying to cash checks, but this can hardly justify the cruel treatment.

"CAN I HELP you, sir" This is in a tone that puts me in my place at once.

"I just want to buy a dress for my wife."

"I see." It was just what she expected.

When it appears during the interrogation that I actually do remember my wife's size, the clerk is plainly disappointed.

NATURALLY, one tries to bring this to an end as soon as possible. The result is that the surprise is worn once, usually to a movie where the wife is least likely to be seen by friends.

Then the surprise is hung up and put away in the darkest recess of the closet.

So much for surprised wives.

The point of this confession is that there may be others in the same fix. To you benighted shoppers, I reveal a recent discovery.

Revenge!

LAST WEEK, I crept into one of Marin's largest department stores in search of a United States flag. The reason for wanting the flag is that we have a flagstaff at home and nothing to put on it.

Well, if you want to see a stricken clerk, ask her for a flag. Of course, you've got to make sure first that the store does not stock flags.

The clerk in the second floor drapery department where I made my first query blanched. It obviously appeared to her that I was a right winger, testing both her patriotism and the patriotism of the store.

When she said, "No flags," I had to bite my lip to keep from shouting, "Aha!"

OH, BUT IT was a sweet and grand victory.

She sent me down to the first floor stationery department where I almost said, "Aha!" again. The shaken clerk there called some central office before directing me to the sports department.

THERE WAS a man running the sports department and he looked pretty tough. Anyway, I'd had my fun. Still no flag, though.

ART BUCHWALD

Some Folks Just Don't Respect Great American Billboarditis

JACKSON HOLE, Wyo.—The Garden Clubs of America and the American Forestry Assn. met in Jackson Hole last week and discussed ways of wrecking the American free enterprise system. Without any concern for the great role business plays in our economy, they advocated radical plans to protect nature, forests, and national parks.

This convention, which had the support of Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, could, if carried to its ultimate, set air and water pollution back 20 years.

EVERY AMERICAN that loves drive-in theaters, supermarkets, six-lane highways and junkyards would have been incensed by these people who are only concerned with the beauties of America.

I talked to a few of the delegates and my blood boiled when I heard them say that public parks, natural beaches, and recreation facilities should get priority over private commerce.

"Do you mean to say," I asked one of the ladies, "that you would rather see a tree than a billboard?"

She said she would.

"But with a billboard you're selling an American product. What can you sell with a tree?"

"It is our intention to protect camping sites so Americans can enjoy outdoor life. We want to clean up the rivers so the fish will spawn; we want to clean up the land so flowers will grow."

"WHAT ABOUT the factories?" I said. "We need land for factories and water from th rivers to get rid of the waste. You can't go around cleaning up the great resources of America."

I could see the lady was getting slightly annoyed, so I walked away and went to another group where they were talking about getting some money for the preservation of wildlife.

"This is the twentieth century," I protested. "Nobody cares about wildlife. The money that you are asking for should go into new automobiles, taller buildings, and electric power plants. Show me a home where the buffalo roam and I'll show you a very good spot for a six-lane highway."

YOU WOULD have thought they would have been interested in hearing another viewpoint, but instead everyone in the group went inside.

I was left to myself and my thought. As I walked down to Jackson Lake, which lies at the foot of the snow-capped Grand Tetons, and peered out over the huge pine forests mirrored in the water, I thought to myself, "A good real estate promoter could make this place pay for itself in less than five years."

Then I took a ride on a horse and as we descended into the verdant valley I saw moose, deer, birds, and flowers.

I thought, "What are we doing with national parks when our gross national product isn't anywhere what it should be?"

But when I came back to the Lodge no one would talk to me. These conservation fanatics were determined to keep the wilderness unspoiled.

He agreed.

THE RANGER did an about-face and marched off in a huff.

I shouted after him, "Now what did I say wrong?"

Museum's Boosters Seek Funds

Formation of a building fund-raising committee for the proposed Marin County Museum was announced by Holbrook Mitchell, chairman of the finance committee, at the first membership meeting of the Marin Museum Assn.

The committee will help raise private donations for the museum which is scheduled to open at the Civic Center in 1969.

A progress report on the project so far was given to the meeting by W. W. Kirsch, architect and chairman of the building planning committee.

Sixty women have been trained in the basic art classroom program for Marin public schools in volunteer workshops conducted by Bruce Pinegar, art consultant for San Rafael schools, this summer, said Mrs. Robert Milmoe and Mrs. Paul Haerle, co-chairmen of the art appreciation committee. The program will be expanded this year to include portraits and American art.

The next exhibition is scheduled for March-April at the Civic Center and the annual ball will be held in February.

Marine Telephone Stolen From Boat

Barry W. Rogers of the Sheriff's Marine Patrol, walked into the San Rafael police office Friday and reported someone stole his $375 ship-to-shore telephone from his cabin cruiser while it was moored at the Trade Wind Yacht harbor.

Rogers said he always keeps the cabin of his boat locked but there was no sign of forced entry. He said it was probably stolen sometime Thursday night or Friday morning.

Uninvited Bee Gets Blame For Smashup

Neal Hoskins, 16, of 362 Irwin Street, San Rafael, told police officer Friday a bee flew into his face while he was driving his motorcycle south on Irwin Street causing him to hit the rear end of a car driven by Roxie M. Petty of 515 D Street, San Rafael.

Hoskins was in good condition in San Rafael General Hospital today with a fractured right leg and multiple contusions. His passenger, 14-year-old Machelle J. Hewson of 27 Dolores Street, San Rafael, was treated at the hospital for a cut right knee.

Tourney Play Sometimes Means Gambling For Those Extra Points

You may have to aim for 200 points instead of settling for a comfortable penalty of 100 points.

When this hand was played in a national team championship, West cashed his top hearts and led a third heart to East's queen.

East could defeat the contract by taking the ace of clubs, but decided to wait. He returned a trump instead.

ADVENTURE SEEN

Peter Leventritt, playing the South hand, gave some thought to an adventurous play for the contract beginning with a finesse of the queen of diamonds. The trouble was that South would go down two if the finesse failed.

At rubber bridge South would cheerfully risk the extra hundred points. In this kind of tournament, however, a score of minus 200 points would be fatal, and minus 100 was not necessarily bad.

COMPROMISE PLAY

Leventritt made a compromise play by winning the trump return in dummy and leading the jack of clubs. East played low, hoping that declarer was planning a finesse and that West would be able to win with the queen.

Now East was a dead duck. Leventritt won with the king of clubs and ran all of the trumps, saving two diamonds in dummy and one diamond and one club in his own hand.

East had saved the ace of clubs and the king-jack of diamonds, and had to make one more discard. Whatever East threw, declarer was sure to win the rest.

Incidentally, East lost nothing by trying for 200 points. At the other table of the match West played the hand at four clubs, scoring 150 points. Leventritt's opponent needed more than 150 points to avoid losing the hand.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid four spades. You should have a reasonable play for game opposite a no-trump hand, but should not have a play for slam. In such a case, bid the game at once and avoid a complicated auction.

ORDINANCE NO. 1458
AN ORDINANCE OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF MARIN AMENDING CHAPTER 2.80 of THE MARIN COUNTY CODE PERTAINING TO USE RESTRICTIONS ON COUNTY VEHICLES

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF MARIN DOES HEREBY ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. Chapter 2.80 of the Marin County Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 2.80
COUNTY VEHICLES — USE RESTRICTIONS

Sections: 2.80.010 Purpose.
2.80.020 Definitions.
2.80.030 Policy

2.80.010 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to provide for proper use of County owned vehicles commensurate with operating requirements of County departments.

A. "Vehicle" means County-owned passenger car, truck, patrol car, station wagon, bookmobile, jeep or other motorized transport.

B. "Regular working hours" means those hours during which an employee is regularly performing assigned tasks, usually the same time period each day and normally totalling 40 hours per week, except in the case of the Fire Department.

C. "Qualified Driver" means an individual possessing a valid California motor vehicle operator's license.

D. "Pool Vehicle" means an unassigned vehicle, available for use by any qualified driver. Pool vehicles are dispatched for each trip and must be returned upon completion of each trip.

E. "Assigned Vehicle" means a vehicle which is authorized to be used exclusively by one individual or one department.

F. "Official County Business" means the discharge of properly assigned County responsibilities. To provide for, (1) the most economical use of both manpower and vehicles and (2) the proper and timely discharge of responsibilities, the term "Official County Business" shall include:

1. Use of a vehicle by an employee departing for or returning from an authorized trip, outside regular working hours.
2. Garaging vehicles at home by employees during such periods as they are on established standby status, awaiting calls to respond to emergencies related to loss of life or property.
3. Garaging vehicles at home by employees when the employee is working in a remote location and reports directly from home to such place of work.

2.80.030 Policy. The County Administrator is authorized to assign vehicles as necessary to meet the operating requirements of departments; such authorization shall specify, in writing, the terms of such assignment.

The use of pool and assigned vehicles shall be limited to official County business, by employees or officers who are qualified drivers, and shall be authorized in the manner specified below. Use of vehicles for other than official County business is prohibited, whether or not incidental thereto.

A. Authorization for the use of vehicles during regular working hours and for the use of pool vehicles outside regular working hours shall be effected by the department head, subject to the limitations stated in this chapter, and in regulations adopted pursuant hereto.

B. Authorization for the use of assigned vehicles outside regular working hours shall be effected by the County Administrator, in writing, subject to any limitations contained in such authorization and such other limitations as are contained in this chapter and regulations adopted pursuant hereto.

SECTION II. Prior Authorization. All assignments and authorizations in effect prior to adoption of this ordinance are revoked.

SECTION III. This ordinance is to take effect and be in full force and effect at the expiration of thirty (30) days from and after its passage; and before the expiration of fifteen (15) days after the passage of this ordinance the same shall be published with the names of the members voting for and against the same, at least once in a newspaper of general circulation published in said County of Marin.

The foregoing ordinance was passed and adopted at a regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, on the 31st day of August, 1965, by the following vote, to wit:

AYES: SUPERVISORS William A. Gnoss, Byron W. Leydecker, Thomas T. Storer, Ernest N. Kettenhofen, Peter H. Behr

NOTICE OF BREACH AND ELECTION TO SELL UNDER DEED OF TRUST

Whereas, the 2nd day of May, 1964, JOHN THIBODEAUX and EULA THIBODEAUX, husband and wife, made and executed to SAMPSON B. ODELL AND DANIEL A. COLLINS, as trustees for BENEFICIAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, a deed of trust, which said deed of trust was recorded in the office of the County Recorder of the County of Marin, State of California, in Book 1811, of Official Records, at page 143, on the 7th day of May, 1964.

NOW, THEREFORE, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN by BENEFICIAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, Beneficiary under said deed of trust, that a breach of the obligations thereunder has been committed by the trustors therein and default exists in the following particulars, to-wit: FAILURE TO PAY INTEREST AND PRINCIPAL PAYMENTS WHEN DUE ON INDEBTEDNESS, SECURED BY SAID DEED OF TRUST, and that the BENEFICIAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, beneficiary under the deed of trust exercises the election to cause to be sold the property in said deed of trust described to satisfy the obligation secured thereby, and that, unless said obligation is satisfied theretofore, said property will be sold as provided in said deed of trust.

In Witness Whereof, the undersigned has executed these presents this 24th day of August, 1965.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF MARIN, CALIFORNIA
AN INTERIM ORDINANCE OF THE COUNTY OF MARIN PROHIBITING KENNELS WITHIN A-2 (LIMITED AGRICULTURAL) DISTRICTS, PERTAINING TO ADOPTION OF AN AMENDMENT TO THE MARIN COUNTY ZONING ORDINANCE

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF MARIN, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. The Board of Supervisors hereby finds as follows:

(a) The Marin County Planning Department, in good faith, intends to conduct studies for the purpose of holding hearings pertaining to the adoption of an amendment to the Marin County Zoning Ordinance in connection with the installation and utilization of kennels in A-2 (Limited Agricultural) Districts.

(b) Installation of kennels within said A-2 (Limited Agricultural) Districts in a manner inconsistent with said proposed amendments or at variance with any ultimate action taken in connection with said A-2 (Limited Agricultural) Districts, will seriously impede the effectiveness of such zoning and will impair or prevent the implementation thereof. To protect the public health, safety and welfare pending preparation and adoption of said amendment to the zoning ordinance, it is necessary to adopt a temporary interim zoning ordinance, in accordance with provisions of Government Code Section 65806, prohibiting the establishment of any dog kennels in said A-2 (Limited Agricultural) Districts, which may conflict with said proposed amendment to the Zoning Ordinance.

SECTION 2. Except for existing uses in their present form, no land, building or structure located within an A-2 (Limited Agricultural) District established by the Marin County Zoning Ordinance shall hereafter be developed, or used for kennel purposes unless a use permit is issued therefor, in the manner prescribed in Ordinance No. 264. Use permits will be issued only upon a determination and finding that said use will not, in any way, conflict with the provisions of said proposed amendment to the zoning ordinance.

SECTION 3. The provisions of Marin County Ordinance No. 264, to the extent that they do not conflict herewith are incorporated herein as if more fully set forth.

SECTION 4. Any person, firm or corporation, whether as principal, agent, employee, or otherwise, violating or causing or permitting the violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by a fine of not more than Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars or by imprisonment in the County Jail of said County for a term not exceeding one hundred and eighty (180) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Such person, firm or corporation shall be deemed to be guilty of a separate offense for each and every day during any portion of which any violation of this ordinance is committed, continued or permitted by such person, firm, or corporation, and shall be punishable as herein provided.

Any building or structure set up, erected, constructed, altered, enlarged, converted, moved or maintained contrary to the provisions of this ordinance and/or any use of any land, building or premises established, conducted, operated or maintained contrary to the provisions of this ordinance shall be and the same is hereby declared to be unlawful and a public nuisance and the District Attorney of said County shall, upon order of the Board of Supervisors, immediately commence action of proceedings for the abatement and removal and enjoinment thereof in the manner provided by law and shall take such other steps and shall apply to such court or courts as may have jurisdiction to grant such relief as will abate and remove such building or structure and restrain and enjoin any person, firm or corporation from setting up, erecting, building, maintaining or using any property contrary to the provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 5. Validity. If any section, sub-section, sentence, clause or phrase of this ordinance is for any reason held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this ordinance. The Board of Supervisors hereby declares that it would have passed this ordinance and each section, sub-section, sentence, clause and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, or phrases be declared invalid.

SECTION 6. This ordinance is hereby declared to be an urgency measure and shall be in full force and effect immediately upon its adoption. Within fifteen (15) days after adoption, this ordinance shall be published in the Independent-Journal, a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the County of Marin. The conditions constituting such urgency are as follows: Erection, construction, conversion, alteration or moving of certain buildings or structures contrary to the provisions of this ordinance is deemed to be a menace to the public health, safety, peace and general welfare for the reasons set forth in Section 1 hereof.

The immediate operation of this ordinance is, therefore, necessary to protect the public health, peace, safety and general welfare.

SECTION 7. This ordinance shall be of no further force and effect six months after the date of adoption hereof.

The foregoing ordinance was passed and adopted at a regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, held on the 14th day of September, 1965, by the following vote:

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF SALE OF SCHOOL DISTRICT BONDS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, at the office of the County Clerk and Ex-Officio Clerk of said Board of Supervisors in the Civic Center, City of San Rafael, in said County, California, on Tuesday, the 5th day of October, 1965, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A.M., for the purchase of bonds of KENTFIELD SCHOOL DISTRICT OF MARIN COUNTY, State of California, more particularly described below:

ISSUE: $210,000.00, 1963 School Bonds, Series B, consisting of 210 bonds of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, numbered B-1 to B-210, inclusive, all dated October 1, 1965. Said bonds are part of an authorized issue in the aggregate principal amount of $850,000.00, of which $265,000.00, designated Series A have heretofore been issued and $260,000.00 are now outstanding.

INTEREST RATE: Maximum five (5) per cent per annum, payable annually for the first year on October 1, 1966, and semi-annually thereafter on Oct. 1st and April 1st in each year. Bidders must specify the rate of interest which the bonds hereby offered for sale shall bear. Bidders will be permitted to bid different rates of interest and to split rates irrespective of the maturities of said bonds. The interest rate stated in the bid must be in a multiple of one-eighth or one-twentieth of one per cent per annum, payable as aforesaid. Each bond must bear interest from its date to its fixed maturity date at the rate specified in the bid.

MATURITIES: Said bonds mature serially in consecutive numerical order from lower to higher (without option of prior redemption) as follows:

1963 Series B Bond Numbers	Maturity Dates October 1st
Principal Amount
$ 5,000.00	1-30	1966-1971
10,000.00	31-120	1972-1980
15,000.00	121-150	1981-1982
20,000.00	151-210	1983-1985

PAYMENT: Both principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States at the San Francisco Main Office of Bank of America, National Trust and Savings Association in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, or at the option of the holder at the respective offices of the paying agents of said County in the City of New York, State of New York, or in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois.

REGISTRATION: Coupon bonds will be issued by said Board of Supervisors on behalf of said School District. Such bonds are registrable only as to both principal and interest.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: Said bonds were authorized by more than two-thirds of the voters voting at an election held in said District on April 16, 1963 and will be issued and sold for the purpose of raising money for authorized school purposes.

SECURITY: The bonds are general obligations of said School District, and said Board of Supervisors has power and is obligated to levy ad valorem taxes for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon upon all property within said School District, subject to taxation by said School District (except certain intangible personal property, which is taxable at limited rates), without limitation of rate or amount.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS: In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable under any Federal Income Tax laws, either by the terms of such laws or by ruling of a Federal Income Tax authority or official which is followed by the Internal Revenue Service or by the decision of any Federal Court, the successful bidder may at his option prior to the tender of said bonds by the Board of Supervisors, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds and in such case, the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

LEGAL OPINION: The legal opinion of the following firm, approving the validity of said bonds, will be furnished to the successful bidder without charge: Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington and Sutcliffe of San Francisco, California. A copy of the legal opinion certified by the official in whose office the original is filed will be printed on each bond without charge to the successful bidder.

TERMS OF SALE

HIGHEST BIDDER: The bonds will be awarded to the highest responsible bidder or bidders considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the District would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to the respective maturity dates thereof at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the district. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed on a 360-day year basis. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the district.

RIGHT OF REJECTION: Said Board of Supervisors reserves the right in its discretion to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

PROMPT AWARD: The Board of Supervisors will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for receipt of proposals; provided that the award may be made after the expiration of the specified time if the bidder shall not have given the Board of Supervisors notice in writing of the withdrawal of such proposal.

PROMPT DELIVERY: Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the office of the County Treasurer of said County as soon as the bonds can be prepared, which it is estimated will be within 30 days from the day of sale.

RIGHT OF CANCELLATION: The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the bonds are not tendered for delivery within 60 days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event, the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

FORM OF BID: All bids must be for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale, and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Such bids, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Board of Supervisors of said County, and endorsed "Proposal for School Bonds of KENTFIELD School District of Marin County."

BID CHECK: With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $1,000.00, drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the County Treasurer, to secure said school district from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition, bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the district on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the district. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned by the County Clerk by mail upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon deposit made by the successful bidder.

There is no controversy or litigation pending concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of said district or the title of the officers to their respective offices and the Board of Supervisors will deliver to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregoing as of and at the time of the delivery of the bonds.

Dated: September 7, 1965.

Godoy Pressured By Leftists

BY DANIEL JAMES
Advance News Service

MEXICO CITY—The Dominican provisional regime of Hector Garcia Godoy, barely installed in office, faces severe leftist pressure and could, in the opinion of exiled Dominicans here, topple before much more time has elapsed.

"We shall have a period of calm for perhaps two or three weeks," predicts one of the top leaders of the chief Dominican leftist group, the Castroite June 14 Movement, Marcio Mejia Ricart, who is in exile here. Mejia Ricart and about 10 other June 14 leaders were exiled to this country by the Donald Reid Cabral regime, which was ousted in the April 24 revolt that has just ended.

The revolt's end is only temporary, however, in the opinion of Mejia Ricart and his comrades. They are returning home after Garcia Godoy's announcement that all exiles except the family of the late dictator Trujillo could re-enter the Dominican Republic.

Presumably, the returning June 14 exiles will play a leading role in combating the government that is permitting them to return.

"I don't believe that the nine months of the provisional government can pass without repressing the leftist parties, and if it represses them there will be another revolt," Mejia Ricart said in an interview.

He predicts that Garcia Godoy will fall on the knotty issue disarming both factions which fought for power.

That, Mejia Ricart says, will inevitably lead to "a massive repression of the leftists who refuse to turn in their arms, the only means of popular defense."

The extreme leftists will, in other words, bring on a showdown with the provisional government sooner or later.

Indeed, in anticipation of an effort some day to disarm them, the far-leftist parties have been caching away arms in the countryside since the early weeks of the revolt. They may make a token demonstration of giving up a few light weapons such as rifles and revolvers, but they have no intention of surrendering any of the hardware they have hidden away.

Does that mean there will be guerrilla war?

Mejia Ricart denies being a partisan of guerrilla war, indicating that his movement won't try to precipitate one. He holds that it is "stupid," especially as long as U.S. troops are around. But his movement has an insurrectionary record going back to its inception on June 14, 1959, when it invaded the Dominican Republic with Fidel Castro's backing.

In November 1963, it began an organized guerrilla war after the downfall of President Juan Bosch.

No matter what Mejia Ricart or other leaders say now for publication, it seems certain they will resort to guerrilla tactics if it suits them.

What do the leftists seek?

"A nationalist government consisting of all parties."

By "all parties" Mejia Ricart meant Bosch's Dominican Revolutionary Party and other moderate leftist groups, plus the extremist communist party, Dominican Popular Movement, and the June 14 group. Excluded would be the Balguer-Garcia Godoy Reformist Party.

The "Nationalist government" would be, in short, a popular front dominated by the extreme left. Inevitably, an outright communist government would follow.

The only serious obstacle in the way of such a political evolution in the Dominican Republic is the U.S., Mejia Ricart admits. As long as American armed forces are around, the far left will have little room to maneuver. That is why guerrilla war is "stupid."

"Let the Yankees go and we Dominicans will reach an understanding among ourselves," Mejia Ricart states.

Going further, he sees "no point of conciliation" between the Americans and the Dominican left. He charges that the Americans "represent the negation of liberty" and "control of Dominican policy, the armed forces, industries, trade unions and all the springs of power." The leftists, he says, "defend the sovereignty and self-determination of the people," the "legalization of all the political parties" (meaning, the communist parties), and the "vigilant and deliberate attitude of the people in arms."

Legalization of the three principal Dominican communist groups, which had been outlawed by the Reid Cabral regime, is one of the chief demands of the June 14 movement and its two extremist partners. It is a demand that is likely to add to Garcia Godoy's woes before he is in office much longer.

That and the issues of disarmament, control of the Dominican armed forces, and the removal of the mainly U.S.-manned Inter-American Force are likely to be the main bones of contention in Santo Domingo over the coming period.

If they are not resolved—and few Latin observers believe it is possible to resolve them under the terms of Garcia Godoy's rule—then Mejia Ricart's prediction of serious trouble after "two to three weeks" may be tragically borne out.

U.S. Economy Not Shaken By Viet War

Advance News Service

WASHINGTON—The increased effort the United States will be making in Viet Nam will have only a slight impact on the American economy — considerably less than many businessmen had expected.

That's the conclusion government economists are drawing on the basis of preliminary study of the decisions President Johnson announced Wednesday. It's clear now that the projected build-up will be nothing like the rapid economic expansion that took place during the Korean War.

Additional defense spending to be requested for this fiscal year seems likely to be about $1 billion or $2 billion more than originally budgeted, representing a 2 per cent to 4 per cent boost in the current defense budget. In contrast, arms spending from 1950 to 1953 increased 300 per cent.

Some sections of industry face greater demands. Present orders for helicopters, ammunition, machine tools, some metals, shipping, and such will rise significantly.

But officials see no need to impose economic controls. It will not be necessary to allicate materials, nor to put lids on wages and prices.

The economists are aware that prices or industrial commodities have begun to move up in recent days, in response to talk of a new Viet Nam build-up. But they are hopeful that this psychological run-up will reverse itself once the true dimensions of the escalation are grasped. In any case, the president's advisers are ready to urge that he take a sterner attitude toward price or wage increases that exceed the administration's guidelines.

The government will have to direct some companies—metals producers, mainly—to set aside part of their output for companies filling orders for ammunition and similar items. In some cases the set-aside program is already in operation, needing only expansion.

Some other defense contractors will need priorities to obtain production equipment, such as machine tools. These firms, however, will be measured in the scores, not in the hundreds or the thousands.

Many companies will lose personnel as draftees are called up. For the most part these will be younger men relatively untrained, and most easily spared—though in some cases key technicians will have to go.

The extra defense spending makes a slowdown in the economy next year seem unlikely, or at any rate worrisome. The amounts involved will help offset the loss of thrust expected from a leveling off in auto sales and lowered rates of steel and other inventory accumulation.

However, the experts don't think the Viet Nam build-up will be large enough to banish all fears of a reduction in the rate of growth in 1966. They will foresee more unemployment as a continuing possibility.

Catholic Students Near Scholarships

Three students of Marin Catholic High School are semi-finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Program, an annual nationwide scheme offering four scholarships to a percentage of the finalists.

They are: Claire Broome, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Broome, 29 Circle Road, San Rafael; John McBride, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. McBride, 6 San Gabriel, Fairfax; and Robert Trumbly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Trumbly, 423 Forbes Avenue, San Rafael.

Navy Hospitalman Apprentice Michael F. Smith, son of Greta M. Smith of San Anselmo graduated from 14-weeks of basic Hospital Corps School at U.S. Naval Hospital, San Diego.

Serve In Destroyer

Two Navy men from Marin County aboard the destroyer USS Frank E. Evans recently at Formosa are Radarman Third Class Theodore D. Anthony of 5 Bayview Terrace, Mill Valley and Chief Machinist's Mate Burnham Cantwell of Inverness.

Reserve Speaker Set

George H. Harlan, Superintending Port Engineer for the Military Sea Transportation Service, Pacific Area, will address Naval Reserve Composite Unit 12-17 at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the library building of the College of Marin.

The latest United Nations projection predicts that in 1980 world population will approximate 4.3 billion.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Intestinal Angina Is Amenable To Surgery When Too Severe

VAN DELLEN

Angina (pain) pectoris (chest) is a heart condition in which the coronary arteries are too narrow to bring an adequate supply of blood to the cardiac muscles during exercise or emotional upheavals. The organ gets enough nourishment when it is resting or tranquil because the muscle is not working as hard or as fast. The typical story is the development of pain or a sense of heaviness beneath the breast bone after walking a few blocks. The victim is forced to stop and the distress disappears after a few moments of rest.

A COMPARABLE situation exists in the abdomen when an artery carrying blood to the intestine is hardened or obstructed. A similar pain develops in intestinal angina except that it is noticed during digestion, rather than during exercise. This form of angina is amenable to surgery because it is easier to bypass an obstructed artery in this area than the coronary vessels along the outer surface of the heart.

Most victims are in their 50s or 60s when they develop discomfort that is easily mistaken for indigestion, spastic bowel, peptic ulcer, or pancreatitis. The pain, usually in the center of the abdomen, comes on 15 minutes to three hours after eating and is in proportion to the size of the preceding meal. In time the pain lasts longer and may become constant, but is worsened by eating. The victim fears food, reduces his intake, loses weight, and may develop diarrhea.

THE TYPE OF discomfort varies. It may be crampy in nature and poorly localized. In others, it comes on suddenly and is so severe and persistent that the victim goes into shock. The outcome in these circumstances is not good.

Two types of surgical procedures are possible after special X-ray studies have been done to pinpoint the source of the trouble. The part of the intestine suffering from poor circulation can be removed to eliminate the pain. The blood vessel procedure is the alternative and is recommended when the obstruction or narrowing is limited to one vessel and the flow can be reestablished by removing the clot or by-passing the bottleneck with a plastic artery.

EAT WITH A HANGOVER?

R. T. writes: Is it advisable to try to eat with a hangover, even though nausea is present and appetite is gone?

REPLY

The hangover problem remains unsolved, but food rarely helps. I presume the stomach prefers to be let alone, as it is irritated and inflamed after the beating it took the night before.

ANEMIA AND CIRCULATION

R. E. writes: Is anemia the same as poor circulation?

REPLY

No. Anemia results from a reduction in the number of red blood corpuscles and/or hemoglobin (coloring matter). Poor circulation stems from narrowing of the arteries which interferes with the blood supply to the tissues.

JITTERY GAS

Mrs. B. writes: Is there such a thing as nervous gas in the stomach?

REPLY

I've heard of laughing gas but nervous gas is news to me.

ONE TRACK MIND

R. S. writes: What is monomania?

REPLY

A mental condition in which the individual concentrates on a single object or idea.

Take a Big Jump Forward

Good advertising can put you a long leap ahead of the pack. Maybe you've just started in business and folks don't know you yet. Maybe, on the other hand, you're well-established and you want to tell customers (old and new) about your next big sale. Or maybe you just know that smart merchants keep their names before the public.

In any case, you get the jump on competition by advertising regularly in the retailer's traditional medium—the daily newspaper.

The newspaper reaches just about everybody in town—87.3% of all households. The newspaper is a part of daily life. Particularly with shoppers. They scout its pages for ideas . . . for good buys. They clip ads. They buy from it.

TELEVISION REVIEW

'Trials Of O'Brien Third-Rate Cuteness

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — CBS-TV's "Trials Of O'Brien," a new hour series with talented Peter Falk as an earthy, flamboyant lawyer, turned up during the weekend—a blend of third-rate, imitation Damon Runyon and unpleasant New York affectation.

This New York production was really a major disappointment, wasting so many special people who are regulars in the show. In addition to Falk, there is the lovely and literate Joanna Barnes, who portrays his ex-wife and who came off best in the opener Saturday; actress-authoress Ilka Chase, who plays his ex-mother-in-law; and Elain Stritch, who appears as his long - suffering secretary, and who has a special place in the hearts of theatergoers for her hilarious "Zip" number as an intellectual stripteaser in "Pal Joey."

Except when handled by such masters of New Yorkese as Runyon, O. Henry and Jimmy Cannon, and except when directed with pinpoint flavor, attempts to delineate "picturesque" characters of that city can result in provincial cuteness as determinedly phony and mannered as Hollywood cuteness. And that is what happened.

The best scenes were between Falk and Miss Barnes as the divorced couple still fond of each other. Someone should really do a good situation comedy series about divorce. It will have a big audience.

If quality is any yardstick, there stould be as big audience for a surprisingly successful new one-hour NBC-TV series that arrived last night, "The Wackiest Ship in the Army," about an old two-masted schooner pressed into service for espionage missions in the South Pacific in World War II. This is a finely-tooled service comedy with some adventure thrown in, and I found myself laughing out loud at the performances of Jack Warden, Mike Kellin, Rudy Solari and all the others unhappy with their assignment to the vessel. Gary Collins is a good straight man as the young officer who tries to maintain discipline.

Warden is the series' all-around man as a knowing, tough service veteran, and the writing and direction of Danny Arnold should be mentioned for assuring the show's opening success. The humor was dry, bright and expert, the characters well-drawn and convincing, and the showdown with a two-man Japanese submarine was very funny.

ABC - TV, meanwhile, last night presented the one-hour premiere of "The F.B.I.," and it was a well-produced crime series, starring Efrem Zimbalist Jr. The opener was about a fellow who killed girls with long hair because of a psychological quirk. Since the F.B.I. is a special and exceptional organization, the viewer might perhaps wish for more stories in the future that reveal its significant status. The obviously careful preparation of the show is a firm basis.

On Saturday night, a new series with great comic possibilities, NBC-TV's "Get Smart," about a completely incompetent secret agent Don Adams, arrived with much ballyhoo about its predicted success. The problem is how the writers can possibly keep up a funny spoof of spoof of a spoof for some 30 episodes or more.

Also on Saturday, CBS-TV introduced a half-hour western series, "The Loner," with Lloyd Bridges, and NBC-TV offered the premiere of "I Dream of Jeannie," a half-hour comedy about a genie named Jeannie who mixes up the life of an astronaut who unbottled her on a deserted island. "Jeannie" is pretty standard stuff, with plenty of camera tricks. "The Loner" could shape up well; Bridges is always good, and Rod Serling is handling the scripts.

Sessions will be held Tuesdays from 1 to 3 p.m. Registration will be held Tuesday (Sept. 21) at the Downtown Center, San Francisco State College.

QUICK CURING

Peru Indians Skin Snake For Novatan

By THERON A. NEWELL

Tanned and thinner, Irving Links returned to Novato last week with tales of the head hunter country along the Amazon River and of digging for ancient gold and artifacts in Peruvian ruins.

Along with stories of his three months of travel in South America, he had bags full of relics of ancient civilizations and weapons from the Amazon natives.

Links left Novato on June 12 primarily to visit his son, Leland Links, in Lima, Peru. But his trip included visits to Inca ruins and the head hunter territory on the upper Amazon.

While visiting one Indian tribe, he asked for a souvenir and was presented a live boa constrictor.

When Links made the Indians understand that he would prefer only the hide, the snake was killed and skinned. Then the natives poured honey on the skin and staked it down. In short order, ants cleaned the hide, Links said.

Then the Indians threw some white powder into a campfire. A dense cloud of smoke arose, through which the snakeskin was moved slowly back and forth, curing it within a few minutes.

This is the same process the natives use in shrinking human heads from which the skulls have been removed, he said.

Links was permitted to dig with archeologists from the University of Peru into an ancient mound which spanned three civilizations.

Among souvenirs of the earliest of these — dating back some 3,000 years — he brought back a strangely curved bronze knife, a piece of brightly colored cloth from the shroud of the skeleton of a man measuring seven and one-half feet all, and a huaco filled with corn and beans and with turquoise beads, each carved with a face.

He visited Cuzco, the Inca capital, and stood in the room which was filled with gold bars by the Incas to ransome their chief from Pizzaro.

He spent three days visiting Machu Pichu, the "lost city" of Incas, hidden high on a mountain.

"Not all of the gold was taken by the Spanish," Links said, for he saw much gold in private as well as the Peruvian government collections.

He finished in Lake Titicaca, the highest navigable lake in the world, and caught eight trout that weighed a total of 178 pounds.

He flew to the upper Amazon River and then took boat trips up several tributaries into the head hunter country.

Links recalled that he stood on the Arctic Circle in February on a trip with the Air Force, and on the Equator in June.

Ross Trustees To Discuss Math

A study of the mathematics program in the Ross School District will be presented when the school district board meets at the Ross School Monday at 7:30 p.m.

The board will also hear a report on the district program in physical education and recreation.

Window Pelleted

Dedication Planned For 4-H Building

The San Rafael 4-H Club will dedicate the Arnold Richetti Memorial Building, named for a longtime 4-H leader in the county who died a year ago leaving $30,000 to the club, Sunday 1:30 p.m. at the 4-H Club camp in Las Posadas Forest in Sonoma County.

Blaine Sidesinger, president of the San Rafael Community 4-H Club, said the money Righetti willed the club was used to construct the building scheduled for dedication Sunday.

The nation's corn crop for 1964 is estimated by the Dept. of Agriculture at 3,548,604,000 bushels.

Courthouse Sale, Police On Agenda

The Marin County Board of Supervisors tomorrow will discuss the future of the county courthouse with representatives of the City of San Rafael.

The board meeting will begin at 9 a.m., but the courthouse discussion is not scheduled until 3 p.m.

The board plans to sell the courthouse property to raise $1.4 million toward the Hall of Justice addition to the Civic Center.

City representatives are seeking some assurance that the development of the courthouse block will benefit the downtown business area of the city.

At 10 a.m. tomorrow, or soon after, the board is scheduled to discuss possible consolidations of police functions in the county, aimed at saving tax dollars and increasing efficiency.

Supervisors will be faced with a request from the state to upgrade position and salary of 12 positions in the county department of social public services (welfare).

The changes would add $7,128 to the county budget for the balance of the fiscal year. State and federal funds would support most of this increase. Actually county cost would come to $2,138.

Supervisors will also be asked to consider adoption of the food stamp plan authorized on a county option basis by the state legislature. Only low-income families may qualify for the stamp purchase. The stamp program is intended to lower food costs and guarantee more balanced diets.

National Jobless Picture Brightens

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The number of workers drawing unemployment benefits fell to its lowest point in nine years during the week ending September 4, the Labor Department reported Saturday.

Jobless benefit claims dropped by 55,600 to 1,043,200 during that week.

Peace Corps Stay Slated In Colombia

A 21-year-old Peace Corps volunteer from San Rafael will leave tomorrow on the first leg of a journey to an unknown underdeveloped region of Colombia.

The volunteer, David Oakley Harde, will go first to Miami, where he will join 71 other Peace Corps workers aboard a plane for Bogota. In Bogota, he will be assigned to the town where it is felt his services are most needed.

Harde graduated from San Rafael High School in 1961 and from San Francisco State College last June. He makes his home in San Rafael with his mother, Annabelle C. Harde, at 113 Jewell Street.

His interest in the Peace Corps, he said, was stimulated by "studying a lot at college about South American culture and society." Harde, who speaks Spanish, said, "I am also interested in people and this will be a valuable experience."

He will join some 660 Peace Corps volunteers in Colombia working in agriculture, educational television, rural and urban community development, health and education.

Exactly what he will find himself doing, he said, depends "on the needs of the community" to which he is assigned.

Naturalization Achieved By 18 Marinites

Judging by the Marin residents who were naturalized last month, Canada is sending its fair share of new citizens to the United States.

During August there were 18 residents of Marin naturalized at the U.S. District Court in San Francisco, including three couples.

In the case of Mr. and Mrs. Jon K. Johnson of 979 Del Ganado Road, Terra Linda, both husband and wife are natives of Winnipeg, and former residents of Vancouver.

Johnson, a printer foreman, said he moved to the United States five-and-a-half years ago and has lived in Terra Linda about three years.

Another couple that became U. S. citizens was Mr. and Mrs. Marcel O. Holzgang, 22 Cermenho Court, San Rafael.

Holzgang, a native of Switzerland, met his wife, Irene, while he was working as a cook at St. Andrew's By-the-Sea, New Brunswick. She was a University of Toronto student working at a summer job as cashier.

After they married, he became a Canadian citizen and worked as a cook and chef in Canada until moving to San Francisco in 1958.

Holzgang, chef at the Commercial Club in San Francisco, and his wife have lived in San Rafael five years.

The third couple, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kramer of 36 Plymouth Avenue, Mill Valley, are natives of Norway.

They were married in Norway, but Kramer came to the United States first in 1954 and Mrs. Kramer arrived in 1955.

Other Marin residents who became new citizens last month were:

MILL VALLEY — Malcolm Daws, 14 Gomez Way.

SAUSALITO — Peter Nievergelt, 639 Marin Street.

LARKSPUR — Mrs. Elizabeth Groma, 422 Madrone Avenue.
